

CONTENTS

Foreword: From Reductionist Science to Living Thinking in Medicine	vii
Preface	xix
1. Form and life	I
2. Life and Consciousness: From Amphibians to Reptiles	43
3. Humans and Animals	87
4. THE Human Being and the Processes of Nature	99
5. Clinical Pictures and Disease Patterns	137
6. Working Principles of Therapeutic Eurythmy	227
7. Medical Thinking and Moral Practice	274
Afterword: Goethe's Thinking Applied to the Physician's Path of Training	295
Notes	299
Illustration Credits	330