

Contents

Preface	7
1. The Good Samaritan story	15
1.1 The story of the Good Samaritan and the reasons for focusing on it ...	16
1.2 The story of the Good Samaritan: characters and plot.....	19
1.3 The story of the Good Samaritan: how to approach it (public theology) ..	35
1.3.1 Public theology	36
1.3.2 Theology of Christian caritas and diakonia as public theology..	38
1.3.3 Public theology, social sciences, and social matters.....	41
1.3.4 Public theology and intelligibility of religious language	43
1.4 Who is my neighbour – a question for public theology.....	45
2. Modern Allegorical Interpretations	47
2.1 Economic interpretations	49
2.2 Methodological Interpretations.....	51
2.3 Pastoral Interpretations.....	60
2.4 Diaconal exegesis.....	66
3. Exegesis of the Samaritan story and criteria for evaluating the allegorical interpretations	71
3.1 Notes on parables as a literary genre	72
3.2 The Gospel according to Luke	78
3.3 The Good Samaritan in contemporary exegetic literature	83
3.4 Commentary on individual verses in Lk 10:25–37.....	90
3.5 Unsurpassable criteria for caritas and diakonic interpretations of the text	105
4. What’s left of the story? The public message of the parable	114
4.1 Hermeneutical key to and of mercy	115
4.2 Modern allegory and the hermeneutic key to and of the parable	119
4.2.1 Economic interpretations.....	119
4.2.2 Methodological interpretations	122
4.3 The public message of the parable.....	125
5. What’s left of the story for Christian caritas and diakonia?	130

5.1	Cultic and praxeological messages of the parable	132
5.1.1	Caritas and diakonia in the spirit of the parable as public theology par excellence	132
5.1.2	Practical implications	137
5.2	The missionary message of the parable	140
5.2.1	Missionary and public messages of the Samaritan’s story	142
5.2.2	Missionary message of the parable in the post-secular environ- ment.	144
5.2.3	Practical implications	146
	Instead of a conclusion, the Samaritan’s story continues	150
	References	152