

CONTENTS

Introduction Dorothy McGarry	VII
Editor's Comments Robert P. Holley	X
Session 1--Systems and Practices Today: An Overview
Subject Access in the Brazilian Library Network BIBLIODATA CALCO Eugénio Decourt and Sónia Maria Guerreiro Pacheco	3
Subject Access to Library Materials in Canada: Overview Ingrid Parent	12
Subject Access to Library Materials in Canada: A Balancing Act Between Conformity and Divergence Alina Schweitzer	16
Subject Access Systems in Use in Croatia Mirna Willer	31
Cataloguing Graphics in the Prints Collection: National and University Library, Zagreb, Croatia Mikica Maštrović	41
Evolution of Subject Indexing Practice in France Suzanne Jouguelet	64
Subject Indexing in the Nineties: The Situation in Germany Magda Heiner-Freiling	81
Subject Access in Iran Poori Soltani	94
Subject Catalogues in Poland Jadwiga Sadowska	109
Subject Indexing in Portuguese Libraries: A New Approach with SIPORbase Maria Inês Lopes	121

Subject Indexing at the National Library of Spain Pilar Benedito Castellote	144
Subject Control: The British Viewpoint I.C. McIlwaine	166
Subject Access Systems in the USA Lois Mai Chan	181
Session 2--Current Issues in Subject Indexing
The Complementarity of Natural and Controlled Languages in Indexing Robert Fugmann	215
Precoordination or Not? Elaine Svenonius	231
International Tendencies in Terminology and Indexing Jacqueline Rey	256
Standards and Standardization in Subject Analysis Systems: Current Status and Future Directions Nancy J. Williamson	278
Summary Julianne Beall	292
List of Contributors	301