

Contents

Introduction.	7
I How the German banking system is built	9
1 Goals, tasks and services of credit institutions	9
2 Features of the banking system	10
3 Structure of the banking system	12
4 Competitive environment in the banking market	15
5 Summary	17
II What distinguishes regional banks	18
1 Specification	18
2 Characteristics of regional banks	19
3 Types of regional banks	21
4 Cooperative banks as regional banks	23
5 Summary	24
III What is typical of cooperative banks	26
1 Founding history of cooperative banks	26
2 Characteristics of cooperative banks	29
3 Business principles of cooperative banks	31
4 Types of cooperatives	32
5 Cooperative Finance and Liability Associations	33
6 Cooperative banks in the regions	35
7 Cooperative banks in Europe	36
8 Summary	42
IV How cooperative banks function	44
1 Internal organisation of cooperative banks	44
2 General Assembly	44
3 Management and supervisory board	45
4 Cooperative audit	46

5	Public bank audit	48
6	Summary	49
V	What cooperative banks offer.	51
1	Roots in the population	51
2	Country-wide financial supply.	52
3	Formation of wealth of the population	55
4	Financial supply of SMEs	58
5	Engagement in publicly subsidised loans	62
6	Corporate citizenship.	65
7	Sustainable business model.	67
8	Summary	68
VI	What cooperative banks mean for the economy.	70
1	Banks for the regions.	70
2	Stabilising the financial system	74
3	Supplying credit during the financial and economic crisis	81
4	Summary	83
VII	How cooperative banks are perceived	85
1	Cooperative banks as house banks	85
2	Cooperative banks as "home banks" and regional banks	86
3	Cooperative banks stabilising the banking system	88
4	Summary	89
	Conclusion	91
	Bibliography	94
1	Monographs, anthologies and articles	94
2	Studies and material	95
3	Legal documents and legal rulings	97
4	Selected works on the cooperative system	98
	Authors	100