

Contents

1	From Library Guides to the Bureaucratic Era: An Introduction	1
2	Temporary Indexing	9
1	Around 1800	25
3	The First Card Index?	27
	Addressing Ideas	27
	Data Streams	32
	Copy Error: The Josephinian Card Index	34
	Floods	35
	Canals	37
	The Algorithm	38
	Error: Buffer Overflow	42
	Paper Flow: Taming, Duration	43
	Revolution on Playing Cards	45
4	Thinking in Boxes	49
	The Scholar's Machine	50
	Genealogy: Johann Jacob Moser and Jean Paul	53
	Elsewhere	56
	Banknotes	58
	Balance Sheet	62
	In Praise of the Cross-Reference	63
	On the Gradual Manufacturing of Thoughts in Storage	65
5	American Arrival	69
	Do Not Disturb—William Croswell	69
	Early Fruits and Dissemination	78

II Around 1900 85

6 Institutional Technology Transfer 87

Reformation: Dewey's Three Blessings for America 87

Transfer: Library Bureau 90

Library Supplies 90

Standardization 91

Corporate Genealogy 92

The Transfer 95

Product / System / Manufacturing 100

Digression: Foreign Laurels 102

Industry Strategy 104

7 Transatlantic Technology Transfer 107

Supplying Library Supplies 108

The Library Ge-stell 108

Punch Card 110

The Bridge Enters the Office: World Brain 113

8 Paper Slip Economy 123

System / Organization 125

Universal / Card / Machine 127

Invalidation 131

The War of the Cards: Copyrighting the "Card Index"™ 133

Depiction / Decision 135

Summary: Order / Cleanup 139

Afterword to the English Edition 143

Notes 145

References 181

Index 207