

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Chapter 1. Introduction	1
Losses and Gains, but More Losses	4
Scope of the Book	8
Organization of the Book and Chapter Overview	13
Chapter 2. "It pays to discriminate": The Teacher Salary Cases in the Era of Equalization	27
Equalizing the Education Burden	29
Support for Black Education	32
The Widening Gap	35
Separate and Unequal Salary Schedules	36
Salary Equalization Cases	39
White Response to Salary Equalization	44
Conclusion	50
Chapter 3. Post- Brown Litigation: The Era of Displacement	57
The Assault on Black Teachers	59
Defending Black Teachers	66
Demanding Teacher Integration	70

The Supreme Court Speaks	78
Conclusion	80
Chapter 4. Race-Conscious Remedies:
Defining Affirmative Action, 1965–1971	87
1964 Civil Rights Act and ESEA	89
Overt Resistance	101
Colorblind Evasions	103
Toward Race-Conscious Remedies	106
Conclusion	110
Chapter 5. Implementation: The Era of Affirmative Action	117
National and State Teachers Associations	119
Implementation: White Flight and Teacher Turnover	126
The Experiences of Crossover Teachers	133
Conclusion	138
Chapter 6. Desegregating Teachers in Jackson, Mississippi	143
The Lottery: Drafting Teachers for Desegregation	146
White Flight and School Leadership in Jackson	152
The 1975 Consent Decree	155
The Layoffs and End to Court Oversight in Jackson	162
Conclusion	168
Chapter 7. Tampa-Hillsborough County, Florida:
Teacher Desegregation in Black and White	173
Manning v. Public Board : Defining the Plaintiff Class	175
The Two-Year Plan to Desegregate Teachers	180
Crossing Over	188
Non-Black Teachers	191
Affirmative Action: The Status of Black Principals and Teachers	196
Conclusion	203
Chapter 8. Conclusion	209
Legacies	210
Lessons	218
Index	223