

Table of contents

“Youth and media” report	9
Foreword to English edition	13
Introduction: Remediation	17
INTRODUCTION:
Connected and online, the ethnography of a digital world	27
A new existential situation	27
Melded to media, participating in culture	28
Ethnography of new media	29
Ethnography in a database	30
How we worked?	32
How to read this report?	35
BEING TOGETHER	37
At the 18th birthday party	42
The power of close bonds	46
Black boxes, or material culture in the new media era, Marek Krajewski	47
INTENSITY	51
Coordination of face to face and hand in hand meetings	53
Constant stand-by, Marek Krajewski	54
New dimensions of contacts	57
To be is to take photos	59
Photographic sociability and remediating memory, José van Dijk	62
LOVE	65
Love in the age of digital media	67
An asymmetric balance	68
Getting closer while apart	69
Romantic artifacts	69
An intimate internet	71
TECHNOLOGIES OF REFLEXIVITY	73
Trading attention, or how social networks materialize glances	75
Aestheticizing the everyday, or why life must have a vibe	78
Reflexive travel in the archives of togetherness	81
‘The self’ in a relationship network	82
Robert. Facebook and politics	83
Successfully being yourself	86
Digital technologies and the technologies of the self, Małgorzata Jacyno	87

Reflexively being yourself among others	92
Searching for proof of one's existence, Mirosława Marody	93
SHARING	99
C, like co-internet	104
The rules of sharing	107
Co-internet	110
GEEKING OUT. PASSIONS IN THE NETWORKED ERA	113
Last.fm: vibes via an algorithm	119
A never ending gallery opening	124
Digart: community of practices, online studio	126
Greniu. Listening and making music	129
History – networked	133
A town's visual archive	135
A history seen on the Web	136
Majka: a hypothesis about learning shortcuts	137
Cultural omnivorousness? Małgorzata Jacyno	139
AT SCHOOL	145
Media under the desk	147
Rapidshare Iliad	148
Rule of the algorithm	149
...That's when i ask uncle Google	151
Anyone can write, anyone can correct	152
Educational WWW	153
School outside of school	155
Two clicks away from distraction	157
Text message test	158
Student – teacher: relations mediated by media	160
Schools and new media, Tomasz Szkudlarek	161
MAL DU SIÈCLE? Zygmunt Bauman	165
NEW QUESTIONS ABOUT CULTURAL PARTICIPATION	173
Żuku: no longer a consumer, not yet a creator	175
Henry Jenkins: new forms of cultural participation	177
Wiesław Godzic: television's end, creativity's beginning	178
Wojciech J. Burszta: describing a revolution	181
An "insert" identity	182
Culture as relations with content, not institutions	183
Marek Krajewski: expiration	185

(SEE) Tomek Ratter	193
Acknowledgments.....	209
Additional thanks to:.....	209
Bibliography	211
Notes on contributors.....	213