

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	1
Chapter 1: A Central Repository of Knowledge: The Kunstkammer and the Consolidation of Princely Power .....	7
The Collection's Setting, its Contents and their Display.....	8
The Northern Gallery as a Reception Hall of Dynastic Representation and its Conceptual Source.....	13
Dynastic Representation beyond the Northern Gallery.....	24
The Representation of the Bavarian Territory .....	26
The Centralization of Princely Power .....	35
Chapter 2: A Topical Collection for Princely Purposes: Samuel Quiccheberg's Conception of the Kunstkammer and the Intellectual Milieu of the Court .....	41
Quiccheberg's Inscriptiones as a Culmination of the Topical Epistemology .....	45
Objects of Knowledge, History, and Empiricism .....	57
Courtly Science: the Utility of Knowledge for the Administration of the State.....	63
Quiccheberg's Ideas, the Kunstkammer, and the Intellectual Milieu of the Munich Court.....	72
Chapter 3: Collecting Prodigies: Material Evidence, Confessional Argument, and the Sacralization of the Bavarian Territory ....	89
The Confessional Structure of the Discourse on Prodigies .....	94
Contemporary Approaches to Prodigies in Popular Discourse and Courtly Practice.....	103
Objects and the Materiality of Counter-Reformation Religious Practice.....	116
Strategies of Authentication.....	127
Sacralizing a Catholic Dynasty and its Territory .....	132

Chapter 4: Collecting Reproductions: The Epistemology of the Imago Contrafacta and the Status of Documentary Imagery .....	135
‘ Bildmagie ’ and the Question of Contemporary Perception.....	140
Reproduction and Knowledge of Nature .....	143
Quiccheberg on the Functions of Images .....	149
Mechanical Reproduction and the Idea of the Impressed Image .....	152
Reproduction and the Relationship between Art and Nature.....	157
Reproductions in Votive Practice.....	163
The Imago Contrafacta and the Question of the Historicity of Perception.....	171
Conclusion .....	175
Figures .....	179
Bibliography .....	185
Index of Historic Personages .....	207
Index of Subjects .....	211