

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	9
Rob Evans - Introduction.....	11
Keynote Speech.....	25
Peter Alheit Lifelong Learning and Social Capital.....	27
Papers.....	49
Inga Börjesson Reflections on European and German education policy regarding Learning Regions	51
Marcin Gołębniak - Learning diasporic identity: The case of Greek Political Refugees in Lower Silesia	65
Marcin Gołębniak - Diasporic identity – Research materials	79
Gökçe Güvercin - Learning in union: the case of ‘Eğitim Sen’ in Turkey.....	89
Catherine Laviolette Engagement social et développement local: des mères d’origine marocaine s’investissent dans une association militante.....	107
Jorge Santos The arts as a way of fostering social learning in adulthood.....	123
Özlem Ünlübisarcıklı Learning experiences of adult literacy education participants in Turkey.....	133
Panel Discussions.....	149
Panel 1 - Living at the Margins and Social Capital.....	151
Sabina Hussain - Living at the margin and social capital	153

Adrianna Nizińska Social capital and its potential to reduce poverty – a few sceptical voices.....	159
Ewa Kurantowicz Living at the margins and citizenship.....	165
 Panel 2 - Social movements and landscapes of knowledge and experience.....	173
Estrella Gualda Social movements, new technologies and new strategies for mobilization	175
Rozalia Ligus Social movements and landscapes of knowledge and experience	181
Isık Sabırlı-Özsisli What affects learning in social movements? How/why does learning occur?	185
 Panel 3 - Researching learning landscapes.....	189
Ewa Kurantowicz Researching Learning Landscapes	191
Sol Haring Researching Learning Landscapes: A panel comment called “The Making of ...”	203
 Conference Report - ESREA Newsletter June 2009	209
 Profiles of the authors.....	213
 Conference Programme	229
Contents of Volume I	235
Contents of Volume II.....	239