

Contents

Editorial preface vii

Sound examples x

Section I: Introductory essays

1 Carl Stumpf: Impulses towards a cognitive theory of musical evolution 3

Helga de la Motte-Haber

- 1.1. Self-contradictory concepts of the evolution of music 4
- 1.2. A brief summary of significant aspects of the 1911 text 7
- 1.3. Psychology of tone instead of psychophysics 12

2 Carl Stumpf: A reluctant revolutionary 17

David Trippett

- 2.1. Legacy 19
- 2.2. Contemporary discourse 20
- 2.3. Fusion 23
- 2.4. The phonograph 26

Section II: The origins of music (1911)

Preface 31

3 Part I: The origin and archetypes of music making 33

- 3.1. Recent theories 34
- 3.2. The origin and archetypes of singing 43
- 3.3. Primitive instruments and their influence 51
- 3.4. Polyphony, rhythm, and intoned speech 55
- 3.5. Paths of development 61

Endnotes 66

4 Part II: Songs of primitive peoples 107

Appendix: Images of primitive instruments 175

Section III: Carl Stumpf: Life and work

5 Carl Stumpf: A Self-Portrait (1924) 189

5.1. Biography 189

5.2. Views and research 219

6 Carl Stumpf's publications 253

Index 261