

Table of contents

OTMAR SEUL
FOREWORD	1
DANIEL BASTIDA
PREFACE	6
JOAN MIQUEL RASCAGNERES
THE PROFESSION OF LAWYER IN THE PRINCIPALITY OF ANDORRA	5
ULRIKE BRANDL
HOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN AUSTRIA	9
Introduction and legal basis	9
Requirements to be fulfilled	10
Necessity to have a certain nationality	10
Finalisation of law studies	10
Five years practice	12
The successful completion of the bar exam	13
Participation in certain training seminars	13
Requirements for lawyers, who acquired the accreditation to work as a lawyer in another country, to be registered as a lawyer in Austria or to be allowed to work as a lawyer in Austria	14
MARTIN KOPA, MAXIM TOMOSZEK
HOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC	17
Legal Education in the Czech Republic	17
Becoming a Judge in the Czech Republic	20
Becoming a State Prosecutor in the Czech Republic	22
Becoming an Attorney in the Czech Republic	23
Becoming a Notary in the Czech Republic	25
Becoming an Executor in the Czech Republic	25
Other legal professions	26

ANTHONY DURSIBECOMING A LAWYER IN ENGLAND AND WALES 29*Solicitor 30

Academic stage 30

Vocational stage 30

Professional stage 30

Admission to the Roll 31

Barrister 31

Academic stage 31

Vocational stage 31

Professional stage 32

Tenancy 32

Legal Executive 33

Academic stage 33

Professional stage 33

STEPHANIE DIJOUXHOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN FRANCE 35*The admission by a postgraduate legal qualification 36

Examination to enter into professional schools 37

Professional training 37

Admission of other legal professions 38Free movement of lawyers in Europe 39

Ability test for european lawyers 40

CLAUDIA SCHLÜTERHOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN GERMANY 41*Law studies at University 41

The state examination (Staatliche Pflichtfachprüfung) 42

The University examination 43

An element of Bologna in German legal education 44

Legal Traineeship (Rechtsreferendariat) 45

The Grading system in Germany 46

PhD and Habilitation – academic career	48
PhD – doctoral degree	48
Habilitation	49
Junior professor – junior professor	50
European Lawyer – EEC lawyer	50
Conclusion	52

GIANMARIA AJANI

HOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN ITALY	53
Legal Education	53
Legal Practice: internship and Bar exam	54
Bar exam	54
Intra EU practice	55

RAJENDRA PARSAD GUNPUTH

THE PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL TRAINING OF LAWYERS ACCORDING TO THE ANGLO-SAXON MODEL IN A MIXED LEGAL SYSTEM – THE CASE OF THE REPUBLIC OF MAURITIUS	57
Introduction	57
Access to law studies	59
The difficulty in accessing the training for lawyers	63
Conclusion	72

IZABELA KRASNICKA, IZABELA SKOMERSKA-MUCHOWSKA

HOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN POLAND?	75
Introduction	75
Becoming an advocate/legal advisor	77
Becoming a judge or prosecutor	78
The reform of judicial training in Poland - Background of reform	78
The Polish National School of Judiciary and Public Prosecution	81
Post-graduate legal training	83

LAURA MAGDALENA TROCANHOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN ROMANIA..... 91

Juridical education in Romania	91
Access to juridical professions in Romania.....	97
How to become a magistrate (judge and prosecutor) in Romania.....	97
How to become a lawyer in Romania.....	102
How to become a notary in Romania	107
How to become a judicial executor in Romania.....	110
How to become a juridical counsellor in Romania.....	112
How to become an actuary/registrar in Romania	115
Access to law professions existing in the public or private sector ...	117
Conclusions	119

GUILHERME WALDEMAR D'OLIVEIRA MARTINS, RAQUEL FRANCOHOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN PORTUGAL AND IN SPAIN 121

Portugal	121
Spain.....	126

DAMIANO CANAPAHOW TO BECOME A LAWYER IN SWITZERLAND..... 131

Introduction	131
The Federal Act on the freedom of movement of lawyers	133
Qualification as a lawyer in Switzerland	136
Free movement of European lawyers in Switzerland	139
Free movement of non-European lawyers.....	143
Conclusion.....	144

CHARLES F. SZYMANSKITHE PROCESS FOR BECOMING AN ATTORNEY IN THE UNITED STATES 147

Introduction	147
Requirements to enter law school.....	147
Completing law school	150
Obtaining a license to practice law	151

Conclusion.....	154
-----------------	-----

FRANK ROMANO

SO YOU WANT TO BE A LAWYER IN CALIFORNIA (USA).....	155
--	------------

Introduction	155
--------------------	-----

I. Preliminary requirements	155
-----------------------------------	-----

II. Law school options	157
------------------------------	-----

III. The Bar examination	162
--------------------------------	-----

Foreign candidates.....	163
-------------------------	-----

Conclusion.....	164
-----------------	-----