

Acknowledgments	vii
-----------------------	-----

Introduction

I	The Phaedrus Effect: Patterns of Changing Media Environments	I
----------	--	---

Part I: Media Ecology Perspectives

2	Media Ecology: Key Theories and Theorists.....	15
3	Carey on McLuhan: Admiration, Rejection, and Redemption	27
4	World History Narratives: From the “Shrunk World” to the “Global Web”	41
5	The Global Village: A Place of Pain, Not Peace	53
6	Case Study: Instant Steal! The Media Ecology of Plagiarism.....	63

Part II: Critical Contours

7	Habermas and the Mediated Shape of the Public Sphere	77
8	Cross-Breeding Media Ecology and Social Ecology	93
9	Anarchy in a Technological Society: An Ellulian Perspective	107
10	Case Study: Understanding Media Anti-Environments	121

Part III: Freedom of Expression

II Free Speech in Changing Media Environments 133

I2 Media Cultures and Hate Speech 141

I3 Case Study: “Burn the Flag! Earn Extra Credit!” 153

Part IV: Eastern Approaches

I4 Contradictions of Media Ecology on China 167

I5 Dispelling the Alphabet Effect 177

I6 The Tao of Media Ecology 193

I7 Case Study: Tai Chi and Media Ecology 205

Part V: The Body and Media Environments

I8 Virtual Media Voices: “Isn’t It Nice to Have a Computer That Will Talk to You?” 215

I9 Probing the Shifting Sensorium: Q-Methodology and Media Environments 227

20 The Self, Body, and Technology: From Cars to Cataracts 243

2I Narcissus and Frankenstein: Technological Sublime,
Technological Horror 257

22 Case Study: Reading Trollope as a Plea
for Typographic Time 269

Conclusion

23 The Phaedrus Effect Redux: Socrates
on New Media Environments 277

Bibliography 295

Index 317