

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
INTRODUCTION
TOM GILL, BRIGITTE STEGER AND DAVID H. SLATER	1
The 3.11 Disasters	3
DAVID H. SLATER
Urgent Ethnography	25
PART I Coping with Life after the Tsunami
BRIGITTE STEGER	51
Solidarity and Distinction through Practices of Cleanliness in Tsunami Evacuation Shelters in Yamada, Iwate Prefecture	53
NATHAN J. PETERSON
Adapting Religious Practice in Response to Disaster in Iwate Prefecture	77
JOHANNES WILHELM AND ALYNE DELANEY
No Homes, No Boats, No Rafts: Miyagi Coastal People in the Aftermath of Disaster	99

PART 2 Coping with Life after the Nuclear Disaster

125

DAVID MCNEILL

Them versus Us: Japanese and International Reporting of the Fukushima Nuclear Crisis

127

IKEDA YOKO

The Construction of Risk and the Resilience of Fukushima in the Aftermath of the Nuclear Power Plant Accident

151

MORIOKA RIKA

Mother Courage: Women as Activists between a Passive Populace and a Paralyzed Government

177

TOM GILL

This Spoiled Soil: Place, People and Community in an Irradiated Village in Fukushima Prefecture

201

PART 3 Insider/Outsider Encounters

235

TUUKKA TOIVONEN

Youth for 3.11 and the Challenge of Dispatching Young Urban Volunteers to North-eastern Japan

237

DAVID H. SLATER

Moralities of Volunteer Aid: The Permutations of Gifts and their Reciprocals

267

EPILOGUE	293
BRIGITTE STEGER
Still Missing...	295
Notes on Contributors	297
Index	301