

Contents

List of Photographs	5
List of Maps	16
Introduction and Acknowledgements	17
Glossary and List of Abbreviations	19
 Part I: The Genesis of the German Fallschirmtruppe 1936–39
1 The use of the parachute for military means enters German strategic thinking	25
2 The formation of the German Fallschirmtruppe , their testing, and the search for a conception of their employment	29
3 The concept for the employment of Parachute and Air-landing Troops derives from Hitler's aim to form the Wehrmacht into an instrument for his aggressive politics	39
Part I Photographs	54
 Part II: The Fallschirmtruppe between the Campaign against Poland and the Offensive in the West
1 Preparations for Fall Gelb	63
2 The employment of the Fallschirmtruppe in Operation Weserübung	85
Part II Photographs	115
 Part III: The employment of the Fallschirmtruppe during the Campaign in the West
1 Sturmabteilung Koch paves the way across the Albert Canal for the Heer	121
2 Parachute and Air-landing Troops force entry into Fortress Holland	143
10 May	156
11 May	233
12 May	260
13 May	276
14 May	291
The preparation of parachute assaults by air attack forces	299
The outcome of the parachute assaults	300
The abilities of parachute forces to prevail and to persevere	305
Final comments	307
Part III Photographs	312
 Part IV: The Fallschirmtruppe during the time between operations in Holland and the Balkans Campaign
1 Fallschirmjäger reinforce the defense at Narvik	331
2 The parachute force is enlarged from a still-incomplete Division to a Flieger-Korps	352

3	The role of the parachute force in the military-strategic planning of the German High Command between Autumn 1940 and Spring 1941	360
4	Reinforced Fallschirmjäger-Regiment 2 seizes the Isthmus of Corinth	375
	Part IV Photographs	392
	Part V: The Fallschirmtruppe in the battle for Crete
1	The German plan of attack and the provision of the troops for Undertaking Merkur	411
2	Enemy dispositions for the defence of Crete	425
	Maleme / Galatas Sector	431
	Souda Bay Sector	435
	Rethymnon / Georgioupolis Sector	436
	Heraklion Sector	438
3	The assault from the air	440
4	The struggle for the initial objectives	475
	21 May	475
	22 May	488
	23 May	498
	24 May	506
	25 May	510
	26 May	514
5	Onward to Victory	521
	27 May	521
	28 May	525
	29 May	528
	30 May	531
6	The battle for Crete. Touchstone for the German Fallschirmtruppe and turning-point in its history	533
	Part V Photographs	547
	Appendix: Order of Battle of Luftflotte 4 for Operation Merkur , Crete 1941	567
	Bibliography	568
	Index	575