

Contents

Foreword by James H Hindes	7
Acknowledgments	13
Introduction	15
1. The Feminine Archetypes	19
2. The Creation of Woman	25
2.1 The first and second creation	25
2.2 The creation of the wo-man	30
2.3 The fall into sin	37
3. Mary in History	46
3.1 Perpetual virginity	46
3.2 Ascending and descending Christology	49
3.3 The motherhood of God	57
3.4 Consequences of Ephesus for the religious life	59
3.5 The Marian century of the Roman Catholic Church	64
4. Mary and Jesus	68
4.1 The Fifth Gospel and ascending Christology	68
4.2 The human Jesus	74
4.3 The two Marys	84
4.4 The path to the Jordan	94

5. The Divine Sophia	102
5.1 The wisdom literature of the Old Testament	102
Sophia and the creation	104
Sophia and the law, Sophia and the individual	113
Sophia as mirror	115
5.2 Sophia as seen by the church fathers	121
5.3. Sophia in cosmic evolution	126
6. The Human Sophia	144
7. Mary-Sophia and Christ	152
8. Mary-Sophia and the Holy Spirit	164
8.1 Lazarus-John	164
8.2 The new community	174
8.3 The new creation	183
9. Sophia Today	190
9.1 Mary-Sophia and anthroposophy	190
9.2. Jesus-Sophia and imitation of Christ	197
9.3 The being of Sophia and her veneration	201
Notes	207
Bibliography	215