

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Legislation	xxiv
List of Abbreviations	xxxv

1. STARTING POINTS

1. Introduction	3
A. Impetus	1.06
B. Refining the Question	1.27
C. Thematic and Technical Aspects	1.39
2. Practical Considerations	20
A. Divergent Interests	2.02
B. Time Pressure	2.06
C. Liquidity	2.08
D. Discretion	2.11
E. The 'Stigma' of Insolvency	2.12
F. Consequences	2.13
G. Summary	2.15
3. The Interests Involved	27
A. Debtor-side Interests	3.02
B. Creditor-side Interests	3.09
C. Interests of Procedural Bodies	3.17
D. The Public Interest	3.21
E. Summary	3.22
4. Principles of Restructuring Law	35
A. Restructuring as the Goal of the Procedure	4.02
B. Central Issues	4.10

2. AN OVERVIEW OF RESTRUCTURING LAW

5. Restructuring Procedure in Germany	45
A. Company Law	5.05

B. Insolvency Law	5.07
C. Statistics	5.14
D. Summary	5.16
6. Restructuring Procedure in England	52
A. Scheme of Arrangement	6.02
B. Company Voluntary Arrangement	6.05
C. Administration	6.09
D. Winding Up (Liquidation)	6.19
E. Administrative Receivership	6.27
F. Statistics	6.30
G. Summary and Outlook	6.32
3. PROCEDURAL ISSUES
7. Initiating Proceedings	71
A. The Principle of Party Disposition	7.03
B. Standing to Initiate Proceedings	7.05
C. The Duty to Initiate Proceedings	7.22
D. Summary	7.37
8. Triggering Circumstances	86
A. Principles	8.02
B. Application	8.08
C. The Relationship to Insolvency	8.27
D. Summary	8.32
9. Parties to the Proceedings	99
A. Substantive Parties	9.02
B. Procedural Bodies	9.21
C. Overall Picture	9.76
10. The Moratorium	129
A. Principles	10.02
B. Application	10.13
11. Preserving Liquidity	151
A. Overview	11.03
B. Preference Challenges	11.18

C. Offsetting	11.50
D. Overall Picture	11.60
12. Contractual Relationships	180
A. Principles	12.02
B. Germany	12.05
C. England	12.23
D. Overall Picture	12.38
13. Security Interests	196
A. Principles	13.02
B. Germany	13.06
C. England	13.15
D. Overall Picture	13.35
14. Curtailing Creditors' Rights	209
A. Unsecured Creditors	14.02
B. Secured Creditors	14.19
C. Overall Picture	14.25
15. Company Law Measures	219
A. Equity Measures	15.02
B. Demerger	15.13
C. Debt-equity Swap	15.20
D. Overall Picture	15.28
16. Restructuring Loans	233
A. Insolvency-proof Securities	16.03
B. Priority in Subsequent Insolvencies	16.09
C. Overall Picture	16.20
17. The Restructuring Decision	241
A. Due Time	17.02
B. Submission of the Restructuring Plan	17.06
C. The Decision Makers: Allocating Competencies	17.12
D. The Majority	17.22
E. Obstruction	17.34
F. The Scope of the Decision's Effect	17.38
G. The Role of the Court	17.54
H. Overall Picture	17.75

18. Restructuring Controls	270
A. Germany	18.04
B. England	18.11
C. Overall Picture	18.17

4. SPECIAL CASES

19. Cross-border Restructuring	279
A. Assets Abroad	19.03
B. Forum Shopping	19.04
C. Summary	19.08

20. The Restructuring of Group Companies	283
A. Germany	20.02
B. England	20.08
C. Summary	20.13

21. Taxation Issues	289
A. Germany	21.02
B. England	21.09
C. Summary	21.12

5. ANALYSIS

22. Advantages and Disadvantages of German Restructuring Law	297
---	------------

23. Advantages and Disadvantages of English Restructuring Law	300
A. Scheme of Arrangement	23.02
B. Company Voluntary Arrangement	23.09
C. Administration	23.16

24. Orientation Toward Restructuring	306
A. Incentives to Restructure	24.02
B. Procedural Flexibility	24.10
C. Procedural Efficiency	24.16
D. Compromise Between Interests	24.21

Bibliography	315
Index	331