

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	11
1. PAINTING AND WRITING HAVE MUCH TO TELL EACH OTHER ..	19
A SUBLIME, SILENT FISH WORLD	19
Mute Pictures	21
Writing Images	28
Virginia Woolf and Impressionism: Aesthetic Tensions	33
OUTLOOK	38
2. DISAPPEARING INCOMPLETELY – THE MARK BETWEEN PRESENCE AND ABSENCE	47
THE MARK ON THE WALL	47
MARKS	52
Mark-Materiality	55
Mark-Making-Touches in Impressionist Paintings	58
BLANCHOT'S CONFLICTING IMAGE	65
Between Here and Nowhere	67
THE MARK OF UNUSED OBJECTS	74
A Work of Emission, of Almost Nothingness	76
Listless Is the Air in an Empty Room	81
TRAVERSING PATHS OF THE WRITERLY	97
3. DESERTED SPACES	103
PERSON	107
NOCTURNAL CREATURES MADE OF WORDS	112
Masks of Words	112
The Respiration of the Sign and the Animality of the Letter	116

DISSOLUTION AND ETERNITY	121
Moving Calmness	121
But There Was a Force Working	126
BLOOMSBURY CRITICISM: BEYOND AESTHETICISM ...	134
Roger Fry: On the Edge of that Gulf	138
Clive Bell's All-Pervading Rhythm	142
4. ART AND ORIGIN	151
THE RETURN OF THE ORIGIN – MARIE BRACQUEMOND'S INTERIOR OF A SALON AND THE LADY IN WHITE	153
THE REMEMBRANCE OF ORIGIN IN BLANCHOT'S WRITING	159
Remembering in Reading	159
The Lost Origin Breaks Loose	163
Constitutive Negation in "Literature and the Right to Death"	165
AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA	176
5. FLEETING MOMENTS TO RETAIN	185
IMPRESSION	192
WOMAN AT HER TOILETTE – A VISUAL POEM	199
Mis-embodiments	200
The Careful Composition of a Fleeting Moment	202
Spatial Composition	203
Brushwork	203
Colour Arrangement	205
Presentation and Potential	208
Reflections	208
Kristeva on Colour	210
The Flash of Colour: George Didi-Huberman	214
Seeming Presence	221
TERRIFYING REVELATIONS	226
Moments of Being	227
Present Memories	232
Saturating Every Atom	238

THE PANOLPY OF LIFE	242
She Was the Whole Thing	242
This Dashing Fluency	246
Rhythmical Connections	248
Time Is out of Joint	256
 6. DAILY MIRACLES – THE ORDINARY AND THE EXTRAORDINARY	265
CONCEPTS OF EVERYDAYNESS	265
We Are the Thing Itself	267
Life Escapes	274
Incarnate Ideas	277
The Ordinary as Beyond	284
EVERYDAY SPEECH: BLANCHOT'S IMAGE OF EVERYDAY LIFE	288
The Ordinary as a Political Space	288
The Spectacle	291
The Potential of Daily Life	295
The Silence of Everyday Speech	300
WHATEVER COMMON PEOPLE DO	305
Retrospection	305
Knitting Women	311
This Eternal Passing and Flowing	312
Knitting as Epiphany	314
Knitting-Texture-Text	320
Ordinary Occupations and Modern Art	326
 7. WRITING AND PAINTING IN TOUCH	329
 ILLUSTRATIONS	335
BIBLIOGRAPHY	345