

CD 1: Interviews and Exercises 8

Unit 1 – Elle for export (CD 1 – Track 2-6)	8
Sally Brampton, editor of ELLE , talks about adapting a French magazine for the British public.
Unit 2 – "Down the pub" (CD 1 – Track 7-9)	13
Britain's changing drinking habits.
Unit 3 – Jeffrey Archer (CD 1 – Track 10-15)	16
The best-selling author and politician on "success".
Unit 4 – Business on both sides of the Atlantic (CD 1 – Track 16-18)	22
An international lawyer looks at working conditions in Europe and the United States.
Unit 5 – The American Dream (CD 1 – Track 19-23)	27
Getting to the top, the American way.
Unit 6 – How to find a partner (CD 1 – Track 24-28)	31
An original way to find the man or woman of your life.

CD 2: Interviews and Exercises 35

Unit 7 – What makes Americans laugh (CD 2 – Track 1-4)	35
American cartoonist Matt Groening takes a look at his country's humour
Unit 8 – New York: a city of crime (CD 2 – Track 5-8)	40
One New Yorker tells of her experience in this reputedly* dangerous city.
Unit 9 – To the ends of the earth (CD 2 – Track 9-13)	43
An explorer describes his expedition to the South Pole.
Unit 10 – San Francisco: not the Golden Gate (CD 2 – Track 14-17)	47
A report on the city's hidden face.
Unit 11 – The British Royal Family (CD 2 – Track 18-22)	50
For and against.
Unit 12 – Disneyland (CD 2 – Track 23-26)	54
A journey into fantasy.
False Friends (Falsche Freunde)	59
Alphabetical word list	63
Track numbers	71