

Contents

Acknowledgements .....	7
Family, kinship and state in contemporary Europe: introduction to the three-volume series Patrick Heady .....	9
1 Introduction: the reshaping of family and kin relations in European welfare systems Hannes Grandits .....	23
2 Welfare as a moral obligation: changing patterns of family support in Italy and the Mediterranean Pier Paolo Viazzo and Francesco Zanutelli .....	47
3 Strengthening weak ties: Swedish welfare and kinship David Gaunt .....	93
4 The relationship between family, kin and social security in twentieth-century Germany Heidi Rosenbaum and Elisabeth Timm .....	127
5 French individualism and kinship ties Georges Augustins and Martine Segalen .....	181
6 Filling gaps in social security: family and kinship ties in Austria Johannes Pflegert and Christine Geserick .....	213
7 Kinship and the welfare state in twentieth-century Croatian transitions Hannes Grandits .....	249

8	Family and state in twentieth-century Poland Leon Dyczewski .....	283
9	Kinship ties and family support in twentieth-century Russia Irina Trotsuk and Alexander Nikulin .....	325
10	Kinship in transformation – measures and models Siegfried Gruber and Patrick Heady .....	363
	Appendix: data sources and derivations .....	391
	Authors .....	401
	Index .....	405