

Contents

Abbreviations — XIII

Introduction — 1

How I re-read the Oresteia: language, narrative and womanhood — 1

Agamemnon — 10

- I Clytemnestra and Iphigeneia's sacrifice — 10
 - 1 Clytemnestra or Iphigeneia's mother and Agamemnon's wife — 10
 - 2 Mother, daughter and sacrifice — 15
 - 3 Iphigeneia's silence and paternal violence — 20
 - 4 Clytemnestra, Agamemnon's dilemma and paternal treachery — 27
 - 5 Clytemnestra, Agamemnon's dilemma and maternal sophronein — 30
 - 6 Clytemnestra's motherhood, the Alastor and the Erinyes — 35
 - 7 Conclusions — 43
- II Cassandra, the chorus and Iphigeneia's sacrifice — 44
 - 1 Clytemnestra as an adulterous wife and a bad mother — 45
 - 2 Problematising Clytemnestra's representation as a bad mother and a bad wife — 50
 - 3 Conclusions — 55
- III Clytemnestra and the war against Troy — 55
 - 1 The chorus on the war against Troy — 57
 - 2 Clytemnestra on the war against Troy — 60
 - 3 The voice of the other — 67
 - 4 Agamemnon on the war against Troy — 74
 - 5 The misuse of power — 77
 - 6 Conclusions — 81

Choephoroi — 82

- I Clytemnestra as mother-echthros and non-tropheus — 83
 - 1 The nurse on trephein — 83
 - 2 Clytemnestra on trephein — 86
 - 3 Agamemnon as father-tropheus — 91
 - 4 Clytemnestra as mother non-tropheus and female tyrant — 95
 - 5 Conclusions — 98
- II Clytemnestra as mother-echthros and non-tokeus — 99

- 1 Agamemnon as father-tokeus and Clytemnestra as mother non-tokeus — 99
- 2 The father-tokeus and the estrangement between mother and son — 107
- 3 Conclusions — 109
- III Clytemnestra as mother-philos — 110
 - 1 The adulterous wife is still a mother — 110
 - 2 Clytemnestra as mother-tropheus — 113
 - 3 Clytemnestra as mother-tokeus — 117
 - 4 Maternal sophronein — 122
 - 5 Clytemnestra as mother-philos and the death of her son — 125
 - 6 Divine command against the mother and human suffering for the mother — 128
 - 7 Conclusions — 130
- IV Shall I kill the mother? The reality (of the metaphors) of son and mother — 131
 - 1 The blood of the mother, once again — 131
 - 2 The maternal continuum, once again — 135
 - 3 Clytemnestra's dream and metaphorical motherhood — 137
 - 4 Orestes and Apollonian logos — 140
 - 5 Orestes' logos and biological motherhood — 142
 - 6 Conclusions — 146

Eumenides — 147

- 1 The Erinyes and maternal sophronein — 148
- 2 The Erinyes, their painful memory and female genealogy — 155
- 3 The legitimacy of words — 160
- 4 Athena's persuasion, the Erinyes and/or Eumenides — 169
- 5 Zeus, his Erinyes and the Trojan War — 176
- 6 The son, the father and the war against Troy — 181
- 7 Conclusions — 184

General conclusions — 186

Bibliographic References — 188

Index of Names and Subjects — 206

Index Locorum — 208