

Contents

1899 – 1918

The early years

Horch – where the legend began

The birth of Audi

Along came a Wanderer

DKW gets up steam

Horch – an overview

Audi – an overview

Wanderer – an overview

1919 – 1932

Growth between inflation and economic crisis

From workshop to assembly line

Horch – quality and quantity

Audi – noblesse oblige

Wanderer – from tradition to innovation

DKW – forging the Auto Union

Horch – an overview

Audi – an overview

Wanderer – an overview

DKW – an overview

1932 – 1945

The sign of the Four Rings

Auto Union AG, Chemnitz

Audi's new dynamism

DKW – Auto Union's economic foundation

Horch – setting the tone in the luxury car class

Wanderer – quality and advanced engineering

in the midsize class

Motor sport – races, victories and records

Audi – an overview

DKW – an overview

Horch – an overview

Wanderer – an overview

Motor sport – an overview

1945 – 1964

From mountains of rubble to the economic miracle

A new era dawns

An end and a new beginning – the Four Rings

in Bavaria

Liaison with the three-pointed star 1958 – 1964

Auto Union in motor sport

Auto Union – an overview

1873 – 1969

NSU

Bicycles instead of knitting machines

1873 – 1918

Crisis and success between the wars

1919 – 1945

From two-stroke motorcycle to

Wankel-engined car

1945 – 1969

NSU – an overview

1965 – 1984

A new profile for the Four Rings

Takeover and merger – VW, NSU and elective affinities

quattro – a hand with four aces

From racing circuit to gravel track –

successful years in motor sport

1965 – 1987

Audi – an overview

1985 – 2000

The way to the top

Turbulent times

Up and away to new dimensions

Fallen, recovered, ready to go –

recession and its consequences

TransAm, IMSA-GTO, DTM and Le Mans –

on the world's racing circuits 1988 – 2009

Audi – an overview

2000 – 2009

Into the 21st century

Future perspectives

New-model news

Audi – an overview

Attractive styling for cars

with the four-ring emblem

Global player

Promoting culture, art and sport

1899 – 2009

Appendix

Who's who?

Personal data

Type summary