

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	xi
William Ayers
Preface.....	xv
Frank Hernandez
Acknowledgments.....	xix
Introduction.....	1
Every Day Is Like Skydiving Without a Parachute: A Revolution for Abolishing the School to Prison Pipeline
Anthony J. Nocella II, Priya Parmar, and David Stovall
Part i.....	9
The Rise of an Imprisoning Youth Culture
Chapter One: Criminalizing Education: Zero Tolerance Policies, Police in the Hallways, and the School to Prison Pipeline.....
11
Nancy A. Heitzeg

Chapter Two: The Schoolhouse as Jailhouse.....	37
Annette Fuentes
Chapter Three: Changing the Lens: Moving Away from the School to Prison Pipeline	54
Damien M. Sojoyner
Part II.....	67
Targeting Youth
Chapter Four: Punishment Creep and the Crisis of Youth in the Age of Disposability.....	69
Henry A. Giroux
Chapter Five: Targets for Arrest	86
Jesselyn McCurdy
Chapter Six: Red Road Lost: A Story Based on True Events.....	102
Four Arrows
Chapter Seven: Emerging from Our Silos: Coalition Building for Black Girls	113
Maisha T. Winn and Stephanie S. Franklin
Part III.....	129
Special Education Is Segregation
Chapter Eight: Warehousing, Imprisoning, and Labeling Youth “Minorities”	131
Nekima Levy-Pounds
Chapter Nine: Who Wants to Be Special? Pathologization and the Preparation of Bodies for Prison	145
Deanna Adams and Erica Meiners
Chapter Ten: The New Eugenics: Challenging Urban Education and Special Education and the Promise of Hip Hop Pedagogy	165
Anthony J. Nocella II and Kim Socha
Part IV	183
Behind the Walls
Chapter Eleven: Prisons of Ignorance	185
Mumia Abu-Jamal

Chapter Twelve: At the End of the Pipeline: Can the Liberal Arts Liberate the Incarcerated?	192
Deborah Appleman, Zeke Caligiuri, and Jon Vang
Chapter Thirteen: Transforming Justice and Hip Hop Activism in Action	210
Anthony J. Nocella II
Part V	225
Transformative Alternatives
Chapter Fourteen: Back on the Block: Community Reentry and Reintegration of Formerly Incarcerated Youth	227
Don C. Sawyer III and Daniel White Hodge
Chapter Fifteen: Youth in Transition and School Reentry: Process, Problems, and Preparation	248
Anne Burns Thomas
Chapter Sixteen: A Reason to Be Angry: A Mother, Her Sons, and the School to Prison Pipeline	260
Letitia Basford, Bridget Borer, and Joe Lewis
Chapter Seventeen: Youth of Color Fight Back: Transforming Our Communities	280
Emilio Lacques-Zapien and Leslie Mendoza
Afterword	294
Bernardine Dohrn
Contributors' Biographies	298