

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	9
Preface with important notes	13
Introduction	25
Chapter 1	29
What is hypnosis?	29
Mythology and history	29
Émile Coué	31
James Braid	34
Dr. Anton Mesmer	35
Dr. Milton H. Erickson	47
Chapter 2	53
Trance and neurological equivalents	53
Chapter 3	59
A little insight into other methods	59

Chapter 4	67
Hypnosis techniques	67
1. Auto/Selfhypnosis	67
2. Lead trance by means of CDs by and with Susan Fischer	68
3. Lead trance in therapeutic work	71
A) Regression work by means of “communicative hypnosis” using the method of Susan Fischer	71
B) Rediscovery of resources with the help of hypnosis	76
 Chapter 5	 79
A quick overview of listed terms from an etymological perspective	79
Hypnosis	79
Trance	79
Suggestion	80
Communication	81
Subconscious	81
Conscious	81
Mind	81
Perception	82
Levels of reality	82
Truth	82

Association	83
Dissociation	83
Analysis	83
Hypnoanalysis	84
Regression	84
Resources	85
Change history	85
De-hypnosis	86
Chapter 6	87
The psychological trichotomy of human beings: subconscious, conscious, mind	87
Chapter 7	93
“Parts therapy” in therapeutic hypnosis work	93
Conscious and subconscious in communication	93
Regression work in trance	95
Chapter 8	101
Respectful	101
Chapter 9	105
The dream	105
Etymology	105

Psychological interpretation “dream”	106
Chapter 10	115
Stupor, somnolence, sopor, coma, somnambulism	115
Stupor	115
Somnolence	115
Sopor	117
Coma	118
Somnambulism	118
Theory – Empiricism – Theory	122
Chapter 11	145
Intuition	145
Chapter 12	149
The authority of the subconscious	149
Authority	150
Autonomy	154
Autarchy	155
Charismatic authority	156