

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	V
Preface	IX
Introduction: Four Oracular Novellas	1
Novella I. Lev 24:10–23	23
1. The Identity of the Criminal	35
2. The Crime	48
3. The Laws of Bloodshed and Disfigurement	67
4. The Story	81
5. The Oracular Novella and the Holiness Code	88
Novella II. Num 9:1–14	93
1. The Composition of the Three Segments of the Narrative	98
2. The Location of the Oracular Novella	116
3. The Literary Background of the Oracular Novella	119
a) The influence of Exodus 12 and the rest of the Priestly History	119
b) Points of contact with Deuteronomy 16 and Deuteronomistic Literature	141
4. The Historical Background of the Deferred Pesah	148
Novella III. Num 15:32–36	165
1. The Form of the Oracular Novella and Other Priestly Texts about the Sabbath	173
2. The Relationship with the Oracular Novella in Lev 24:10–23	181
3. The Relationship with the Texts of Numbers 15	185
Novella IV. Num 27:1–11	196
1. Source-Critical Analysis	202
2. The Original Novella in Num 27:1–7a, 11b	211
3. The Original Novella and Related Texts: Num 26:29–34 and Josh 17:1–6	214
4. The List of Inheritors in Num 27:8b–11a	235
5. The Complete Novella	242
6. The Complete Novella and Related Texts	243
a) Num 36:1–12	243
b) Ruth	250

Summary and Conclusions: Oracular Novellas and Priestly Historiography . .	257
1. Review	257
2. The Oracular Novellas and the History of the Priestly History	261
3. The Form of the Oracular Novellas and the Priestly History	263
4. Law and Narrative	265
 Bibliography: List of Abbreviations	 271
 Indices	 319
1. Source Index	319
I. Biblical Versions, Ancient Translations, and Rabbinic Comments	319
II. Ancient Literature and Documents	340
III. Medieval Commentaries and Modern Scholarship	342
2. Subject Index	350
I. Critical Theory	350
II. Literary Motifs and Legal Topoi	351
III. Oracular Novella	352
IV. Rhetorical Devices	353