

Contents

1	Childhood and Youth	1
1.1	The Family Home	1
1.2	Friedrich List as Pupil and Tanner Apprentice	4
1.3	Reutlingen Becomes Part of Württemberg	6
1.4	Serving the Administration of Württemberg	7
1.5	The University Professor	16
1.6	Counsel of the Trade and Commerce Union	25
1.7	Representative in Württemberg's Chamber of Deputies	38
1.8	Investment in a Vitriol Plant in Oedendorf and a Coal Deposit Near Spiegelberg	47
	References	53
2	On the Run	57
2.1	Sojourn in Strasbourg	57
2.2	Sojourn in Kehl	62
2.3	Difficulties of Settling in Switzerland	65
2.4	Pedagogical, Academic and Journalistic Activities	79
2.5	Attempts at Political Rehabilitation in Württemberg	86
2.6	Journey to Paris and London	93
2.7	Return to Württemberg	98
	References	100
3	Emigration to the United States of America	101
3.1	Imprisonment at Hohenasperg and Emigration	101
3.2	Passage to and Arrival in the New World	105
3.3	Travel with General Lafayette along the Atlantic Seaboard	108
3.4	List's Farm in Harrisburg	110
3.5	List Visits the Rapp Foundations New Harmony and Economy	113
3.6	Editor of the Reader Adler	115
3.7	Discovery of Coal Mines and Co-founding of One of the First Railway Companies in the New World	117
3.8	"Outlines of American Political Economy"	122
		xvii

3.9	Appointment as American Consul	126
3.10	European Intermezzo	129
	References	133
4	An Advocate Without Money, Keen on Helping His Home Country . . .	135
4.1	Sojourn in Hamburg	135
4.2	Transfer to Leipzig	137
4.3	Difficulties in Obtaining the Status of Consul from the Saxonian Government	140
4.4	Planning of the First German Long-Distance Railway between Leipzig and Dresden	143
4.5	The Prussian Railway "Berlin-Magdeburg" and the "Hamburg-Braunschweig" Railway	153
4.6	Proposal for the Construction of a Railway between Mannheim and Basel	157
4.7	Exile in Paris	158
4.8	Le Système Naturel de l'Économie Politique : The Natural System of Political Economy	165
4.9	Le monde marche : The World Is in Motion	170
4.10	The Railway in Thuringia	174
	References	179
5	National Economist and Visionary	181
5.1	List's Last Residence in Augsburg	181
5.2	"The National System of Political Economy"	183
5.3	Systemic Themes	189
5.4	Contemporary Praise and Criticism	200
5.5	International Reviews	211
5.6	Protective Tariffs and Their Significance Today	223
5.7	Bestowal and Retraction of the St. Michael's Decoration by the Bavarian King Ludwig I.	226
	References	228
6	Journeys to Neighboring Countries	231
6.1	Commercial Efforts in Belgium	231
6.2	Journey to Austria and Hungary	233
6.3	Attempts to Achieve a German-English Alliance	242
	References	251
7	The Tragic End	253
7.1	List's Last Journey and the Announcement of His Death	253
7.2	Posthumous Tributes	258
7.3	Citizen of the World	266
	References	269
	Author's Publications	271
	Index	273