

First page:

This lime tree with crucifix stands in the little village of Schlitten, now part of Wessobrunn. Its counter- part is in Wessobrunn

*itself, with the famous Wessobrunn Prayer
inscribed on a stone slab
under the tree.*

Previous page:

In the evening light the statue of Mary, the Frauenkirche and the

*Neues Rathaus with its tower and chimes effuse
a magical charm.*

Below:

The rafts used on the River Isar – seen here between Wolfratshausen and Thalkirchen – now no *longer transport goods

such as wine, chalk, plaster or marble but visitors from near and far.*

Page 10/11: Looking east from the top of the Zugspitze. The highest mountain in Germany in the Wetterstein Range, its first known mention as the "Zugspitz" was in 1590. Over 200 years later in 1820 Karl Naus was the first to set foot on the summit 2,963 metres (9,721 feet) above sea level.

Inhalt

12

Pretty as a picture –
Upper Bavaria

26

Between the Altmühl and the Fünf-Seen-Land
Page 38
'Liquid lunch'
and other delicacies

58

From the Pfaffenwinkel to the Tegernsee
Page 80
From fairy tale to detective story –
the life of Ludwig II
Page 88
Der blaue Reiter – avant-garde in the Alps

100

Wendelstein, Chiemgau and Berchtesgadener Land
Page 112
Calendar of events

134 index

135 map

136 credits