

Introduction	VII
1. Perpetrator Introjects and Attachment Typology According to the SPIM 30 Model	1
2. Limitations of Traditional Approaches with Dissociative Trauma Patients	12
3. Indication Criteria for Different Therapy Approaches	23
4. Basic Criteria of the SPIM 30 Model	31
5. Terms and Definitions	42
6. Abstinence and Setting Modifications	49
7. Magical Thinking and Perpetrator Attachment	52
8. Processing Stages of Transference and Introject States	56
9. Concurrent Individual and Group Therapy	61
10. Group Therapy: From Trial Run to Long Term Social Commitment	66
11. Implementing Individual Settings in Group Therapy	71
12. Specific Group Settings for Ego State Work	74
13. The Mediator Principle	78
14. Case Examples
Mr. Q. (DDNOS)	81
Mrs. T. (DDNOS)	106
15. Research at the Trauma-Institute-Leipzig	128
16. Slander and Betrayal in the Psychoanalytic Community	152
17. Slander and Betrayal Within the Therapeutic Relationship	161
18. Slander and Betrayal During the German Reunification	171
19. Practical Material and Training	177
Abbreviations	182
Figures and Tables	184
References	186