

Foreword 9

Credits 11

1. 1890–1918 The First Years and the First World War 13
(Stefan Pretzlik)

The Founding of Allianz 13

The Early Years 24

The Insurance Official and the “Fräulein” 28

New Insurance Branches and First Mergers 39

Sales and Marketing 53

Foreign Business and the First World War 58

2. 1918–1933 Crises, Rationalization, and Growth 71
(Gerd Modert)

A New Allianz – A New Generation Takes Over 76

Mastering Crises: Moderation, Conversion, and Mergers 84

How Allianz Survived Hyperinflation 98

Roaring Twenties? – Rationalization, Growth, Crisis 105

Communication: Newspapers, Advertising, Public Relations 123

International Markets 135

3. 1933–1948 Allianz: The Nazi Years and Reconstruction 143
(Gerd Modert)

1933: Kurt Schmitt, Allianz, and National Socialism 147

“Insurance Must Make Money” – Economic Development and Adaptation 159

Allianz, its Jewish Employees and Clients, and the Anti-Semitic Policies of the National Socialist Regime 172
War, Peace, Reconstruction 186

4. 1948–1970 The Economic Miracle and Unlimited Growth 205
(Stefan Pretzlik)

A New Corporate Headquarters 206

A New Head Office 210

Allianz Pensions 212

The Clients Come with Their Cars 215

Sag' es heiter, Du kommst weiter (Say It with Cheer, and You'll Keep on Going!) 218

Hoffentlich Allianz versichert (Hopefully Covered by Allianz) 222

The Company Undergoes Change 224

On the Way to Becoming Allianz Staff 231

Codetermination in the Company 234

Allianz Agents 237

The Little Man and Life Insurance 242

New Investment Principles 244

Dealing with New Risks: The Dawning of the Atomic Age 249

The Difficulty of Rebooting International Business 251

5. 1970–1990 Paths of Internationalization 257
(Barbara Eggenkämper)

Change of Command and of Generations 259

1970: Losses and Restructuring 264

Restructuring Automobile Insurance 266

Customer Service and Safety Research 268

Rationalization and Cost Management 271

Success in the Life Insurance Business 276

1977: A Corporate Identity for Allianz 281

Nuclear Energy: Insuring a Radiant Vision of the 1970s 285

The View across the Borders: First Steps Abroad 289

The Founding of Allianz International Insurance Co. Ltd., London 296

Forced Expansion of Foreign Business 298

1985: Becoming the Allianz AG Holding Company 305

1985–1990: Changes in Allianz's International Business after

Formation of the Holding Company 308

The European Single Market 318

6. 1990–2015 The International Financial Services Provider	323
(Barbara Eggenkämper)
Allianz during the 1990s	326
Change in Allianz's Corporate Culture	328
The Process of Transformation in the 1990s	334
From Reunification to Global Player Status	340
Allianz in Asia	345
Asset Management and Banking Operations	352
1999: A New Corporate Design	358
Allianz at the Start of the 21 st Century	362
The Founding of the SE	365
A Strong Community with a Future	374

Appendix

Notes	377
Picture Credits	423
List of Archives	423
Index	424