

Contents

1	Inception: From Hundred Days Reform to Xinhai Revolution	1
1.1	Historical Background of the Encounter of the East and the West.....	1
1.2	Hundred Days Reform.....	4
1.3	Late Qing Constitution Movement	8
1.4	Xinhai Revolution.....	14
2	Failed Legacy: The Early Days of the New Republic	19
2.1	Provisional Constitution and Its Limitations.....	20
2.2	Yuan Shikai's Seizure of the Throne	30
2.3	Warlord Politics, May 4 Movement and Civil Revolution	37
3	Rule by the Party: Party Rule, Tutelage and Transformation Towards Constitutionalism	45
3.1	The Origin of Party Rule	46
3.2	Degeneration of Tutelage and Setbacks of Constitutionalism Cause.....	51
3.3	Transformation of the Authoritarian Politics.....	56
4	Revolutionary Legal System: From Common Program to 1975 Constitution	61
4.1	"Abolish Old Codes" Movement and Onset of New China.....	62
4.1.1	Two Addresses in 1949: Extend the Legal Coherence and "Carry the Revolution Through to the End"	62
4.1.2	The Essential Logic of Revolution: Innovation and Breakaway.....	63
4.1.3	Revolution's Breakaway Logic Applied in Legal System: Abolishment of the Six Codes	64
4.1.4	Mao Zedong's Three Theories on Democracy Constitution: New Democracy, New Democracy Constitutionalism and Coalition Government	65

4.1.5	Common Program: The Onset of Revolutionary Legal System Reform.....	75
4.2	Debate Over Formalism of the Revolutionary Legal System.....	77
4.2.1	Law Class-Based Characteristics Argument: Criticism and Judgment	78
4.2.2	Legal Inheritability: Formal Exposition.....	81
4.3	75 Constitution – The “Continued Revolution” Mania	90
5	Transformation to Daily Routine: Reform and Governance	99
5.1	Constitution and Mechanism of the Transitional Rule of Law	103
5.2	Rule of Fundamental Law: From Judicial Independence to Constitutional Judicialization	104
5.2.1	Constitution Revision: Evolution of Reform Era Constitution	107
5.2.2	Judicial Constitutionalism: Idealist Pursuit and Institutional Challenge	111
5.2.3	The Rise of Political Constitutionalism: Rationalization of Transitional Rule of Law.....	116
5.3	Rule of Specific Law: From Private Law Taking Precedence to Rise of the Public Law	120
5.3.1	Criminal Law: From “Procedural Self-Governance” to Public Opinion’s Involvement.....	121
5.3.2	Civil Law and Private Rights: The Foundation of Civil Society	124
5.3.3	Administrative Law and Implementation: Administration First or Procedure First	128
6	Review and Outlook.....	135
	References.....	145