

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction: the Political Humanism of Hannah Arendt	1
Notes	.
1 THE CITY IN RUINS	25
Totalitarianism as a Limit Situation
The Burden of Our Time
The Sources of Our Political Crisis
Notes
2 LOOK TO THE GREAT AND COMMON WORLD	63
The Spirit of Arendtian Politics
The Cultural Convictions of Modernity
The Victory of the Animal Laborans
Notes
3 OUR TRADITION OF POLITICAL THOUGHT	111
Overcoming Tradition
Greek Political Philosophy
The Platonic Inheritance
Aristotle's Practical Philosophy
Poiesis and Praxis
Ruling and Being Ruled
The Best Way to Live
Notes
4 THE MARXIST REVERSALS OF TRADITION	179
Progress and Disillusion
Dialectical Materialism

The Critique of Capitalism
The Arendtian Critique of Marx
The Glorification of Labor and the Naturalization of Man
Violence as the Essence of Politics
The Science of Historical Necessity
Marxism As Ideology: An Arendtian Critique
The Merits and Limitations of Marxism
Notes
5 THE DISCONTENTS OF LIBERAL DEMOCRACY and THE CONTINUING RELEVANCE OF ARENDTIAN THOUGHT	237
PART I
The Critical Appropriation of Tradition
The Old and the New
The Discontents of Liberal Democracy
A Crisis of Legitimacy
The Promise and Perils of Globalization
American Democracy Revisited
Toward a New Progressive Agenda
E Pluribus Unum : The Challenge of Contemporary Pluralism
PART II
The Critique of Liberalism
Public Liberty
Participation and Representation
The Primacy of Politics Over Economics
The Social Question Revisited: Distributive Justice and Political Equality
The Renewal of Civil Society
The Common World and the Common Good
Healing the Rift Between Thought and Action: The Importance of Practical Wisdom
Is There A Way To Get There From Here?
Notes
Selected Bibliography	301
Index	305