

Contents

Series Editor's Preface	ix
Foreword	xi
Prologue	xv
Part One: Intellectual Biography	1
1. Childhood and Youth Abroad: Scholastic Success and Intellectual Curiosity	1
2. Studies and Work as a Tutor in Vienna: The Basis for an Idealistic Worldview	3
3. Archivist in Weimar: The Philosophy of Goethean Natural Science	9
4. Writer and Speaker in Berlin: The Free Spirit Converts to Theosophy	14
5. The Path to the Goetheanum: The Elaboration of Anthroposophy as Science, Religion and Art	23
6. A New Era: The Wisdom Teacher's Move to Social Reform and Renewal of Education	30
Part Two: Critical Exposition of Steiner's Philosophical and Educational Work	39
7. Goetheanism: The Epistemological Early Works	39
8. Anthroposophy: An Overview of Steiner's Basic Teachings	49
9. The Path of Cognition	51

10. Cosmology: Emanation of the Spirit and the World's Evolution	55
11. Anthropology: Man's Fourfold Architecture	59
12. Man's Functional Threefold Structure	63
13. Biography as Reincarnation and Destinal Chain ('Karma')	67
14. The Four Temperaments	69
15. Ages and the Development of the Human Person	72
16. The Concept of Education	75
17. The Free Waldorf School	81
18. A School in the Spirit of Anthroposophy?	85
19. The Waldorf Pre-School and the Anthroposophical Curative Education	110
Part Three: The Reception and Influence of Steiner's Work	121
20. Anthroposophy as a Philosophy Without Boundaries	123
21. Anthroposophy as the Return of Mythical Thought within Science	127
22. Anthroposophy – A Modernized Form of Gnosis	135
23. The Free Waldorf School: A School of Classic Progressive Education?	140
24. Between Prohibition and Continuation as Experimental State School: The Ambivalent Interest of NSDAP in Waldorf School Practice	154
25. The Importance of Waldorf Pedagogy for State Schools	157
26. Waldorf Schools: The Dubious Character of their Fundamentals and the Prerequisites of Their Success	160
27. Learning from the Waldorf Schools – A New Dialogue and its Themes	171

Part Four: The Relevance of Steiner/Waldorf Schools Today	181
28. The Global Success of Rudolf Steiner's Pedagogy	181
29. How Successful are Waldorf Schools? – Evaluation Studies	185
30. What Do Waldorf Pupils Do after Graduation and How Do They See Their School in Retrospect? – Alumni Studies	191
31. How Do Teachers and Pupils View the Waldorf School? – Attitude Studies	204
32. Class Teacher–Pupil Relationships at Waldorf Schools – A Current Research Contribution	208
Epilogue	223
Bibliography	225
Glossary	251
Index	260