

- 1 Master Cherry finds a piece of wood that can laugh and cry.
Page 11
- 2 Master Cherry gives away the annoying piece of wood. Geppetto plans to carve it into a puppet that can dance, and fence, and jump in the air.
Page 17
- 3 Geppetto carves a puppet, calls the puppet Pinocchio, and soon finds himself in serious trouble.
Page 23
- 4 Pinocchio meets the wise cricket, but doesn't know that crickets' heads are much softer than wooden heads.
Page 37
- 5 Pinocchio feels hungry, and finds an egg, but the egg flies away.
Page 45
- 6 Pinocchio goes to sleep, not realizing that wooden feet can easily catch fire.
Page 51
- 7 Geppetto comes home, and Pinocchio finally gets something to eat.
Page 57
- 8 Pinocchio gets not only new feet, but also new clothes and a first-class copybook.
Page 63
- 9 Pinocchio has to choose between school and the puppet theatre.
Page 71
- 10 The puppets make friends with Pinocchio, but the puppeteer is not pleased.
Page 77
- 11 The puppeteer's heart is touched, but he still wants wood for a fire to roast his mutton.
Page 85
- 12 The puppeteer gives Pinocchio five gold coins, and he plans to take them to his father.
Page 93
- 13 Pinocchio goes to the Red Lobster Inn.
Page 101
- 14 Pinocchio runs right into the arms of misfortune.
Page 109
- 15 Pinocchio dangles from the lowest branch of the great oak tree.
Page 117
- 16 The little turquoise-blue girl saves Pinocchio and calls in three doctors.
Page 123
- 17 Pinocchio doesn't like his medicine, and as he tells lies his nose grows longer.
Page 131
- 18 Pinocchio meets the fox and the cat again and lets them win him over.
Page 141
- 19 Pinocchio not only goes away empty-handed, he even goes to prison.
Page 149
- 20 Pinocchio is set free, but he immediately falls into a trap.
Page 155
- 21 Pinocchio is freed from the trap and then caught again.
Page 161

22	Pinocchio thinks the little turquoise-blue girl is dead and flies to the sea on the back of a dove.	33	Pinocchio turns back into a puppet and finds himself in inky darkness.
	Page 171		Page 253
23	Pinocchio lands on Busy Bees' Island, and after a great shock he has a lovely surprise.	34	Pinocchio makes a great discovery.
	Page 177		Page 265
24	Pinocchio has good reasons for wanting to stay a puppet.	35	The story of Pinocchio ends happily.
	Page 185		Page 273
25	Pinocchio goes to school, makes friends and picks three red flowers.		Publisher's note
	Page 189		Page 293
26	Pinocchio has to fight and get away from the police.		Illustrator's note
	Page 195		Page 294
27	Pinocchio is going to be fried fish for the green fisherman's lunch.		Biographies
	Page 203		Page 296
28	Pinocchio gets help from an unexpected quarter.		Works published by
	Page 211		archives antonio saura
29	Pinocchio hears surprising news about a distant land from his friend Candlewick.		Page 298
	Page 219		Colophon
30	Pinocchio arrives in Toyland and finds out something that worries him seriously.		Page 300
	Page 227
31	Pinocchio grows not just donkey's ears but also a donkey's tail.
	Page 235
32	Pinocchio goes to the circus, and soon he is to be a drum skin.
	Page 243		