

Table of Contents

Introduction	9
Chapter I. Legal analysis on banks and bank holding companies under U.S. Law	13
Subchapter I. Legal issues on development of the bank system in the USA and its supervisory authorities	13
A. Historical Background of the U.S. bank system	13
B. Short overview on the structure of the U.S. system of bank Regulation	17
I. The Office of Comptroller of the Currency of the State	17
II. The Federal Reserve System	18
III. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation	18
Subchapter II. Bank Holding Companies in the U.S.: economical and legal development through XIX – XXI centuries	20
A. Historical introduction into the development of the bank holding companies in the USA and their legislative framework	20
I. Banking Act of 1933 (Glass-Steagall Act)	21
II. Securities Act of 1933 and 1934	23
III. Investment Company Act of 1940	24
IV. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956	25
V. The Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act of 1994	28
VI. Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999	28
B. Conclusions.	32
Chapter II. Lehman Brothers Group Bankruptcy: Case Study on US Chapter 11 procedure and related European insolvency proceedings	35

Subchapter I. Causes leading to LBHI's bankruptcy	35
A. Overview on Lehman Brother's business	35
B. Overview on the history of LBHI's default and its impact on financial markets	36
C. Experts evaluating causes of LBHI's bankruptcy	40
I. Economic reasons	40
II. Internal corporate policy reasons	43
D. Conclusions	44
 Subchapter II. Case study on bankruptcy proceeding over the assets of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (LBHI) in the USA: main highlights of the case and their legal evaluation	 45
A. Sale of Lehman's North American Unit to Barclays plc: Transaction Structure, its benefits and management	48
I. Transaction structure	50
II. Transaction benefits	51
III. Summary of the Purchase Agreement provisions	52
IV. Legal evaluation	54
B. Creation and role of the creditors committee	60
I. Activities of the creditors' committee in the LBHI case	51
C. Appointment of the examiner and the main conclusions of the examiners' report in investigating LBHI case	63
I. Examiners' activities in investigating LBHI case	64
D. Legal background, elaboration and main effects of the Chapter 11 reorganization plan	66
I. Classification of claims pursuant to the plan	74
1. Classified claims	76
2. Unclassified claims: treatment of the tax claims	81
II. Distributions under the plan	83
III. Effects of the plan	84
IV. Post-effective date management of the LBHI	85
E. Conclusions	86

Chapter III. Lehman's largest European affiliates in bankruptcy and cross-border cooperation issues	89
Subchapter I. The largest European proceedings on the assets of LBHI's affiliates: United Kingdom, Netherlands, Germany	89
A. Administration procedure under the UK Law: Lehman Brothers International Europe Case	89
B. Insolvency proceeding in the Netherlands: Lehman Brothers Treasury Co. B.V	96
C. German Insolvency Proceeding: Lehman Brothers Bankhaus AG	100
Subchapter II. Elaboration, approval and legal evaluation of the cross-border insolvency protocol for the Lehman Brothers group of companies	105
A. Elaboration of the protocol during February-June 2009	107
B. Contents of the protocol	109
I. Treatment of the intercompany claims according to the provisions of cross-border protocol	111
II. Provisions of the protocol considering the submission of the reorganization plan	112
C. Controversial legal evaluation of the cross-border protocol	113
D. Conclusions	115
Subchapter III. Main achievements of the international cooperation in the LBHI case and its effect on the international insolvency legislation	116
A. Settlement Negotiations with main European subsidiaries	116
B. The influence of the LBHI case on the development of the US and European legislation concerning winding-up of the group of companies	118

I. Improvement of the BHC legislation in the United States as a result of 2008-2009 financial crises: Financial Regulatory Reform	118
II. Tendencies in European insolvency laws: revision of Regulation (EC) No 1346/2000 on insolvency proceedings	126
Conclusions general	131
Bibliography	135