

Contents

Introductory remarks on the phenomenon of business networks and on this volume	11
Peter Krebs, Stefanie Jung
Cooperation gains from network goods	22
Johannes Glückler, Ingmar Hammer
Company networks reloaded – putting a general functional approach to defining complex problems to the test	41
Peter Krebs, Katja Aedtner, Marion Schultes
The modular system of network activities	75
Peter Krebs, Stefanie Jung, Katja Aedtner, Marion Schultes
Governance structures in business networks	118
Peter Krebs, Stefanie Jung
Network-like organisations: On their distinction and meaning exemplified by the co-operation in construction	171
Katja Aedtner
Company networks and the dichotomy and statics of competition law – a combined dynamic control of conduct and structure as a solution approach	198
Marion Schultes
Economic analysis of value-added networks: A holistic approach to the competitive effects of vertical agreements	227
Jonatan Prosenjak
Company networks in the light of European market power	260
Hermann Dück, Alexander Eufinger, Marion Schultes

The scope of loyalty duties in dynamic networks Emily M. Weitzenboeck	278
A frame for business networks governance Carlos Gómez Asensio	319
Contractual business networks: Interpretation criteria and axiological perspective Camilla Crea	354
Virtual enterprises: liability problems in one- and multi-level networks Katja Aedtner, Gunther Teubner	381
Interface-liability. Tortious joint liability towards third parties of network-like cooperating companies, and at the same time a contribution to liability in cases of multi-causation Maximilian Becker	395
Authors	423