

CONTENTS

12 Vienna – a big city with a big heart between the traditional and the modern

26 The hub of Vienna – the city centre

Page 64

600 years of the Habsburgs – culture, commerce and Catholicism

Page 82

An exquisite culture –
Vienna, the city of music

94 The Ring – a metropolitan boulevard

Page 108

Vienna – epicentre of art ancient and modern

142 The suburbs – from Biedermeier to High Baroque

Page 150

Schloss Schönbrunn – the Habsburgs' Versailles

172 From the New Danube to the Danube Canal

Page 186

Vienna –
pioneer of contemporary architecture

202 Woods, water and fresh air – the green metropolis

Page 212

The Heuriger – the legendary Viennese wine tavern

Page 222     Index

Page 223     Map

Page 8/9:

Friedensreich Hundertwasser, who made his name as a painter, turned his hand to architecture in the final years of his life. This colourful block of flats named after him can be found in the Third District.

Page 10/11:

The Barnabite church erected by Sebastian Carlone the Younger at the end of the 17th century on Innere Mariahilfer Straße has all the typical traits of a place of worship from the High Baroque period.