

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	9
INTRODUCTION	11

Part one

CHAPTER ONE: THE HISTORICAL, POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CONTEXT OF SOMALI ORAL POETRY	17
Clan and political dynamics in a historical perspective	18
The foundation of Somali pastoralist oral poetry	19
The language of poetry: ideology and politics in language	23
Hegemonic nomadic pastoralist poetry and the consequences of the politics of the language	29
The contradiction between clan system culture and the discourse of national identity	32
Tribalization and re-tribalization of the Somali politics. A colonial imprint?	34
Clan ideology and its concept of state	46
Military takeover of power and the subsequent policies of economic and social transformation	50
The land question and the further marginalization of the agriculturalists	55
Concomitant crises which have distraught the regime in Somalia	58
CHAPTER TWO: POETRY AND POLITICS: THE IMMEDIATE CONTENT OF THE DEELLEY POETRY DEBATE	61
Re-emergence of clan rivalries in Somali politics	62
The call and the organization for the poetry debate	66
The leading figures of the Deelley Poetry debate	69
CHAPTER THREE: THE CHOICE OF THE METHOD	73
Descriptive overview of the analysis of the Deelley Polytext	75
Analytical strategies	79

Part two

CHAPTER FOUR: ANALYSES OF INDIVIDUAL POEMS	85
Gaariye, "No Refuge is offered by Tribalism"	85
Hadraawi, "Unfulfilled"	103
Idaajaa, "The Veils of Ignorance"	124

CHAPTER FIVE: METAPHORS	140
Damal (The Damal -Tree Metaphor).....	140
AWR (The Male Camel Metaphor).....	151
Digo hoos ka nool (The Smouldering Dung Metaphor)	159

Part three

CHAPTER SIX: MAANDEEQ: THE SHE-CAMEL
NATION-STATE	175
CHAPTER SEVEN: TRIBALISM AND THE TRIBAL SYSTEM	225
The debate about tribalism and the tribal system.....	232
Conclusive remarks on the debate on tribalism	276
CHAPTER EIGHT: SUMMING UP	278
The use of poetry as a medium of representation of the society	278
Hegemony works from the start. The conceived society and the opacity of ideology	278
The silence over agriculture and the absence of poets from the agriculturalist southern population	283
The discourse of the Deelley	283
The confirmation of 'internal colonialism' and the patrimonial concept of State in Somali culture	286
Injustice as a fundamental question.....	287
Freedom of expression and ideological censorship	288
Language as the locus of ideology.....	288
Ideologies in the discourse of Deelley	289
The poets' critique against the regime.....	295
BIBLIOGRAPHY	299