

Contents

| | |
|--|------|
| Foreword to English edition by Leszek Sibilski | vii |
| Preface by Dietmar Mieth | ix |
| Acknowledgments | xvii |
| | |
| Introduction: The Christian Mission within the Field of Sport Bishop Josef Clemens | 1 |
| | |
| Part 1. Anthropological Aspects | 13 |
| 1. Man, Mortality, and the Athletic Hero: Yesterday and Today Karen Joisten | 15 |
| 2. Overcoming Dualism: The Unity of the Human Person in Sport Pedro Barrajón, L.C. | 39 |
| 3. Morality and Beauty: Sport at the Service of the Human Person Christoph Hüenthal | 61 |
| | |
| Part 2. Theological Aspects | 79 |
| 4. Biblical and Patristic Foundations for Sport Alois Koch, S.J. | 81 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 5. Sport in the Magisterium of Pius XII Kevin Lixey, L.C. | 104 |
| 6. Sport in the Magisterium of John Paul II Bishop Carlo Mazza | 121 |
| 7. Sport in the Magisterium of Benedict XVI Bishop Josef Clemens | 139 |
| 8. A Christian Vision of Sport Dietmar Mieth | 156 |
| Part 3. Pastoral Aspects | |
| 9. Sport as a Sign of the Times: Pastoral Observations and Challenges Stephan Goertz | 189 |
| 10. Sport as a Pastoral Opportunity: The Sports Chaplain Bernhard Maier, S.D.B. | 206 |
| 11. Concrete Pastoral Action within Sport Norbert Müller | 223 |
| Bibliography | |
| Contributors | 235 |
| Index | 247 |
| | 249 |