
Contents

Foreword xi
Ramona Hernández

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction: Latina/o Studies: The Emergence and Transformation of a Field 1
Angeles Donoso Macaya

HISTORY

Introduction 17
Yolanda Prieto

A Plea to Destigmatize Mariel 20
Siro del Castillo

The Evolution of the Latino Community in New York City 22
Gabriel Haslip Viera

The Great Exodus: Its Roots 37
Ramona Hernández

Our Heights' Story: Exploring the Dominican Community in Washington Heights from 1992 to 2013 53
Kaitly Modesto

CULTURE, ETHNICITY, AND RACE

Introduction 69
David Carey, Jr.

"Neither Hispanic, nor Black: We're Brazilian" 71
Ana Cristina Braga Martes translated by Allan Vidigal

Situating Latino Voices in a New England Community. 87
David Carey, Jr.

EDUCATION

Introduction	121
Yolanda (Jolie) Medina
A New Diaspora: Latina/os in the Online Environment	123
Katherine M. Conway, Alyse C. Hachey, and Claire Wladis
The Family in the Classroom: How a Culturally Valid Learning Community Transforms the Identity of Latina/o College Students	142
Rebecca Garte
Making Visible the Invisible: Latina/o Students' Insights about the Resources for and Barriers to High School Persistence	154
Donna M. Harris and Judy Marquez Kiyama
Immigrant Identities in Transnational Contexts: The Figured World of a New York City English Literacy and Civics Education Classroom	167
Dina Lopez
The New Latino Diaspora	182
Stanton Wortham, Katherine Clonan-Roy, Holly Link, and Carlos Martínez

HEALTH

Introduction	191
Lisa J. Scott
The Implications and Impact of Race on the Health of Hispanic/Latino Males	193
Luisa N. Borrell and Clara Rodríguez
Botánicas in America's Backyard: Uncovering the World of Latino Healers' Herb-healing Practices in New York City	206
Anahí Viladrich

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Introduction	225
Silvia Cristina Bettez
Women Leave Home for the Factory: Gender, Work, and Family	227
Yolanda Prieto
Dominican Women Across Three Generations: Educational Dreams, Goals and Hopes	241
Rosie M. Soy and Stefan Bosworth
"They Are Taken into Account for Their Opinions": Making Community and Displaying Identity at a Dominican Beauty Shop in New York City	264
Ginnetta E.B. Candelario

QUEER STUDIES

Introduction	293
David William Foster
Outside/In: Crossing Queer and Latino Boundaries	295
Luis Aponte-Parés
Tacit Subjects	310
Carlos Ulises Decena
Building Home: Arthur Aviles's Choreography of the Public Sphere	325
Ramón H. Rivera-Servera

 FILM AND MEDIA STUDIES

Introduction	359
Daniel Enrique Pérez
From the Margin to the Center: Puerto Rican Cinema in New York	361
Lillian Jiménez
Policing the Latina/o Other: Latinidad in Prime-Time News Coverage of the Elián González Story	369
Isabel Molina Guzmán

 VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS

Introduction	385
Sydney Hutchinson
New York's Latin Music Landmarks.	387
Frank M. Figueroa
Merengue Típico in New York City: A History	392
Sydney Hutchinson
The Writing on the Wall: The Life and Passion of Jean-Michel Basquiat	405
Frances Negrón-Mutaner

 LITERATURE

Introduction	417
Daisy Cocco De Filippis
Sandra María Esteves's Nuyorican Poetics: The Signifying Difference	419
Miriam DeCosta-Willis
Dominican-American Auto-Ethnographies: Considering the Boundaries of Self-Representation in Julia Álvarez and Junot Díaz	432
Aitor Ibarrola-Armendariz
Women's Bodies, Lesbian Passions.	445
Lawrence La Fountain-Stokes
Contributors	465