

Contents

Introduction: Three Dynamics of Mediatized Conflicts.....	1
Stig Hjarvard, Mette Mortensen, and Mikkel Fugl Eskjær
Part One: Transnational Networks
Chapter One: The Mediatization of Environmental Conflict in the 'Network Society'	31
Alison Anderson
Chapter Two: Mediatized Transnational Conflicts: Online Media and the Politicisation of the European Union in Times of Crisis	51
Asimina Michailidou and Hans-Jörg Trenz
Chapter Three: Communicative Figurations of Financial Blogging: Deliberative and Moralising Modes of Crisis Communication During the Eurocrisis	71
Stefanie Auerbeck-Lietz, Andreas Hepp, and Rebecca Venema
Part Two: Mobilising the Personal: Crossing Public and Private Boundaries
Chapter Four: Personalised Scandalisation: Sensationalising Trivial Conflicts? ...	93
Ester Pollack

Chapter Five: Ritual Performance in Mediatized Conflict: The Death of a Princess and a Prime Minister	111
Johanna Sumiala
Chapter Six: Mediatized Asylum Conflicts: Human-Interest Framing and Common-Sense Public Morality	129
Tine Ustad Figenschou, Kjersti Thorbjørnsrud, and Anna Grøndahl Larsen
Part Three: Military, War, and Media
Chapter Seven: Mediatization and Globalisation: New Challenges for War Journalism	149
Stig A. Nohrstedt and Rune Ottosen
Chapter Eight: Imagining Influence: Logic(al) Tensions in War and Defence	165
Sarah Maltby
Chapter Nine: Mediatized Death in Post–Arab Spring Conflicts	185
Lilie Chouliaraki
Conclusion: The Mediatization of Conflicts: Prospects and Challenges	205
Mette Mortensen, Mikkel Fugl Eskjær, and Stig Hjarvard
Author Bios: The Dynamics of Mediatized Conflicts – Peter Lang	213
Index	219