

Contents

Acknowledgments .....	ix
Introduction: Mapping Gwen John: Lives, Lines and Images .....	1
Making Cartographies of Power and Desire .....	4
Chapter One. Letters, Paintings and the Event .....	15
Letters and Paintings as Events.....	18
To Come.....	20
Who Writes or Paints? .....	22
Nomadic Narratives , Visual Forces .....	26
Chapter Two. Epistolary Narratives and the Nomadic Self .....	29
Gwen John: A Nomadic Narratable Subject.....	30
Letters as Nomadic Narratives .....	33
Drafting the Self: Openness in Epistolary Narratives .....	36
Interior Styles, Extravagant Lines .....	40
Pronoun Ambiguity, Names and Imaginary Figures.....	42
Narrative as Force.....	45
Chapter Three. Between the Letter and the Self-Portrait.....	51
Talking of Genres: the Self-Portrait.....	53
Portraiture as a Visual Form of Life Writing .....	58
Peircian semiotics and beyond.....	59
Farewell to the Self.....	62
The Slade self-portraits.....	64
A young artist in Paris .....	67
Nude in the mirror: the artist and the model .....	68
Painting the Self, Playing with the Self .....	72

Chapter Four. Beyond Figuration and Narration .....	77
Portraits and Faces .....	79
On the Figure and the Motif .....	83
Forces, Rhythm and Form .....	88
On Colours .....	93
Colourism, Forces and Figures in John's Paintings .....	96
Charting forces in John's portraits .....	101
Chapter Five. In the Fold: Spaces of Solitude .....	107
Charting a New Geography or perhaps Painting it .....	109
Plane One: the Room, the Interior and the Studio .....	111
Objects, Faces and Spaces .....	113
Spatial Entanglements .....	115
Plane Two: the Street, the Café, the Public Garden .....	116
Plane Three: the Countryside, the River, the Sea .....	121
Epistolary Geographies, Nomadic Becomings .....	124
Chapter Six. "My Dear Master": Between Power and Desire .....	127
Love Letters as Technologies of the Self .....	128
Intertextual Connections .....	131
The "Master", the lover and the artist .....	133
In the fold of reading and writing .....	136
Styles of passion: The Letters of the Portuguese Nun .....	139
Discourses of pathos: reading Clarissa .....	142
Power and Desire in Epistolary Technologies of the Self .....	145
Chapter Seven. Becomings: Of Cats and Other Signs .....	151
Cats as Companions and as Epistolary Signs .....	153
Real and Imagined Spaces, Human and Non-Human Animals .....	155
Narratives of Becoming-Cat .....	156
Becoming-Cat, Becoming-Other .....	162
Chapter Eight. Heterotemporalities .....	165
Whose Archive? .....	166
Different Spaces, Displaced Temporalities .....	168
Bibliography .....	175
Index .....	185