

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Preface	ix
Chapter One. Introduction: Indigeneities and Cosmopolitanisms.....	1
Maximilian C. Forte
Chapter Two. A Carib Canoe, Circling in the Culture of the Open Sea: Submarine Currents Connecting Multiple Indigenous Shores	17
Maximilian C. Forte
Chapter Three. Aboriginal Hip Hoppers: Representin' Aboriginality in Cosmopolitan Worlds	39
Craig Proulx
Chapter Four. David Neel's The Young Chief–Waxwaxam : A Cosmopolitan Treatise	63
Carolyn Butler-Palmer
Chapter Five. Whither the Historicities of Alutiiq Heritage Work Are Drifting.....	77
Arthur Mason
Chapter Six. The Alto Balsas Nahuas: Transnational Indigeneity and Interactions in the World of Arts and Crafts, the Politics of Resistance, and the Global Labor Market.....	97
Frans J. Schryer
Chapter Seven. Transnational Migration and Indigeneity in Canada: A Case Study of Urban Inuit.....	127
Julie-Ann Tomiak and Donna Patrick

Chapter Eight. "Same Cat, Different Stripes": Hemispheric Migrations, New Urban Indian Identities, and the Consolidation of a Cosmopolitan Cosmvision.....	145
Robin Maria DeLugan
Chapter Nine. Indigeneity in Tourism: Transnational Spaces, Pan-Indian Identity, and Cosmopolitanism.....	163
Linda Scarangella
Chapter Ten. Conclusion: From Wandering Jew to Ironic Cosmopolite: A Semi-Utopian Postnationalism.....	189
Nigel Rapport
Contributors.....	211
Index.....	215