

Contents

Foreword11

1. Introduction15

1.1 Concepts and Research Problems15

1.2 Scope and Structure of the Thesis.....20

1.3 Sources27

2. Historical Imagery37

2.1 Dominant Narratives in Chronological Overview.....41

2.1.1 At the Court of Matthias Corvinus41

2.1.2 In the Sixteenth and Seventeenth-Century Noble and Aristocratic Circles44

2.1.3 In Jesuit Historiography46

2.2 Thematic Scope of the Narratives48

2.2.1 Myth of Origin48

2.2.2 Christian Interpretation of the Tribal Past.....56

2.2.3 A History of Belligerent Warriors.....58

2.2.4 Bulwark and Shield of Christianity63

2.3 Settings.....72

2.4 Conclusions.....79

3. Patron Saints.....83

3.1 Confessional Patterns in the Hungarian Kingdom85

3.1.1 Christianization86

3.1.2 Ecclesiastical Structures and the Cult of Patron Saints.....87

3.1.3 Reformation and Counter-Reformation.....91

3.1.4 The Habsburgs in Hungarian Religious Affairs92

3.2 Holy and Tutelary Patrons of the Kingdom of Hungarians94

3.2.1 The Virgin Mary97

3.2.2 St. Stephen and St. Emeric 105

3.2.3 St. Ladislav	116
3.2.4 The Hungarian Heaven.....	128
3.3 Conclusions.....	131
4. Rulers of Hungary	135
4.1 Principles of Hungarian Kingship	138
4.2 Narrated Kingship	142
4.2.1 The Royal Bodies and their Gestures.....	149
4.2.1.1 The Female Body	153
4.2.1.2 The Imperial Body.....	158
4.2.1.3 Royal Body Enthroned	163
4.2.1.4 Standing Pose	170
4.2.1.5 The Royal Body Mounted	173
4.2.1.6 The King's Body Never Rests.....	174
4.2.2 Insignia of Rulership and Royal Emblems.....	175
4.3 Conclusions.....	181
5. Nobility and Aristocracy	183
5.1 Origins, Strata and Custom	187
5.2 Legal Status	194
5.3 Membra Sacrae Coronae	196
5.4 Imagined and Imaginary Kinship	200
5.4.1 The Cult of Ancestors.....	200
5.5 The Faces of Contemporary Nobles and Aristocrats.....	212
5.5.1 Warriors and Statesmen	212
5.5.2 Noblewomen	219
5.5.3 Men of Letters.....	223
5.6 Conclusions.....	229
6. The Afterlife of Illustrated Books on Hungarian History	233
6.1 Uses of Books and their Role in Identity-Building-Processes	235
6.1.1 Different Uses of Thuróczy's Chronicle.....	235

6.1.2	Mausoleum and Trophaeum in the Seventeenth to Twentieth Centuries	245
6.1.3	The Afterlife of Illustrated Lives of Saints	251
6.2	Conclusions.....	255
7.	Final Conclusions.....	259
8.	Abbreviations	263
8.1	Libraries	263
8.2	Periodicals	263
8.3	Catalogues, Dictionaries and Collections of Texts	263
9.	Bibliography	265
9.1	Sources	265
9.2	Literature	269
10.	List of Figures.....	293
11.	Index.....	303