

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	ix
Stephen J. A. Ward
Introduction: Moral Reasoning in Intercultural Media.....	1
Clifford Christians and Bo Shan
Section One: Comparative Research on Chinese and Western Communication Ethics	15
Chapter One: The Analects of Confucius and the Greek Classics: A Comparative Approach	17
Bo Shan and Jincao Xiao
Chapter Two: The Problem of Communitas in Western Moral Philosophy ...	35
Clifford Christians
Section Two: Intercultural Conflicts and Intercultural News Coverage.....	57
Chapter Three: The Islamic Veil in France: The Body That Communicates ...	59
Hugues Hotier
Chapter Four: Derailed News Frames and Dynamic Cultural Hegemony: A Textual Analysis of 9/11 10th-Anniversary Reports	79
Jiamei Tang and Bo Shan

Chapter Five: Framing White Privilege: Eliminating Ethnic Studies from Arizona Schools	97
Hemant Shah
Chapter Six: Moral Indifference or Unwillingness in Public Affairs? Comparing Chinese and Western News Discourse in Reporting Moral Issues	111
Xinya Liu
Chapter Seven: Strange and Familiar: The Othering of Chinese Writer Mo Yan in U.S. News	135
Jing Xin and Donald Matheson
Section Three: The Presence of Group Language Prejudice in News Coverage and Organizations	157
Chapter Eight: Discourse Bias and Face-to-Face Negotiation: Intercultural Analysis of Coverage of the Wenchuan Earthquake	159
Bo Shan and Xue Liu
Chapter Nine: Crime News: Defining the Boundaries	183
Romayne Smith Fullerton and Margaret Jones Patterson
Chapter Ten: Cultural Sojourners: A Study of Western Sub-cultural Musicians in China	199
Xuewei Liu
Chapter Eleven: The Self-Salvation Path of Communication	221
Bo Shan
Section Four: Intercultural Competence of Journalists: Surveys and Reflection	231
Chapter Twelve: Intercultural News Reports and Intercultural Competence of Western Journalists in China	233
Dan Yang
Chapter Thirteen: Original Voices and New Paradigms: Indigenous Media and Social Transformation in Canada	251
Valerie Alia
Chapter Fourteen: Moral Motivation Within Media Cultures	271
Patrick Lee Plaisance
Chapter Fifteen: Casuistry's Strengths for Intercultural Journalism Ethics: A Case in Point	285
Sandra L. Borden and David E. Boeyink

Chapter Sixteen: A Media Ethics Code for all Time Zones?
The Global Use and Implications of the Society of Professional Journalists' Code	305
Chris Roberts
Section Five: Constructing an Intercultural Public Sphere.....	319
Chapter Seventeen: The Global Imaginary in Mumford and McLuhan	321
Jack Lule
Chapter Eighteen: The Ethics of Human Dignity in a Multicultural World ..	337
Clifford Christians
Chapter Nineteen: How Is Intercultural Communication Possible?	357
Bo Shan
Contributors.....	375
Index.....	379