

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements — V

Vlad Beronja and Stijn Vervaet

Introduction — 1

Part 1: Entangled Legacies of Extreme Violence: Traumatic Memories in the Aftermath of the Yugoslav Successor Wars

Antje Postema

“Read and Remember”: Ozren Kebo’s Sarajevo for Beginners as Ironic Guidebook and Narrative Memorial — 23

Vladimir Biti

Remembering Nowhere: The Homeland-on-the-Move in the Exile Writing of Saša Stanišić and Ismet Prčić — 45

Sanja Potkonjak and Tomislav Pletenac

The Art and Craft of Memory: Re-Memorialization Practices in Post-Socialist Croatia — 65

Miranda Jakiša

The Evidence of Srebrenica: Oliver Frljić’s Theater Court in Cowardice — 83

Stijn Vervaet

Intersecting Memories in Post-Yugoslav Fiction: The Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s through the Lens of the Holocaust — 99

Part 2: Reclaiming the Past: Artistic and Literary Representations of Socialist Yugoslavia

Ajla Demiragić

What Remains of Mostar?: Archive and Witness in Marsela Sunjić’s Goodnight, City — 129

Tatjana Jukić

Post-Socialism Remembers the Revolution: The Comedy of It — 149

Nikola Dedić

Yugoslavia in Post-Yugoslav Artistic Practices: Or, Art as ... — 169

Part 3: Reconfiguring the Post-Yugoslav Present: Towards New Forms of Community and Identity

Guido Snel

Garbage Heap, Storehouse, Encyclopedia: Metaphors for a Post-Yugoslav Cultural Memory — 193

Vladimir Zorić

Small Town as the Scene of a Memory Encounter: Portraits and Commemorations of Radomir Konstantinović — 209

Vlad Beronja

Recollecting an Alternative Modernity: Aleksandar Zograf's Flea Market
Archaeologies — 237

Damir Arsenijević, Jasmina Husanović, and Sari Wastell

A Public Language of Grief: Art, Poetry, and Transitional Justice in Post-Conflict Bosnia — 259

Martin Pogačar

Digital Afterlife: Ex-Yugoslav Pop Culture Icons and Social Media — 279

Notes on Contributors — 301

List of Illustrations — 307

Index of Names — 311