

Contents

List of Abbreviations — XI

Introduction — 1

The Holy Man in Late Antiquity — 6

1. Peter Brown's Thesis and Its Development — 6
2. Hagiography – Primary Sources for the Research on the Holy Man — 11
3. Constantinople: an Outline of the Specific Characteristics of Early Constantinopolitan Monasticism — 17

Part I: Life of Hypatios

1. Characteristics of the Source — 23

- 1.1. The Author — 23
- 1.2. The Purpose of the Work and Dates — 26
- 1.3. Originality and Borrowings — 30
- 1.4. Structure — 31
- 1.5. Hypatios – Narratio Hagiographica — 32

2. Analysis — 41

- 2.1. Hypatios' Relations with Secular Authority — 41
 - 2.1.1. Relations with the Emperors and Members of the Imperial Family — 42
 - 2.1.2. Relations with Officials and the Aristocracy — 47
 - 2.1.2.1. Controversial Situations — 50
 - 2.1.2.2. Borderline Cases — 56
 - 2.1.2.3. Positive Relations — 59
 - 2.1.2.4. Jonas of Halmirissos' Relations with the Power Elite of Constantinople; Roushinos — 62
 - 2.2. Relations Between Hypatios and Church Authority — 66
 - 2.2.1. Deaconess — 66
 - 2.2.2. Priests — 67
 - 2.2.3. Hypatios as a Priest — 69
 - 2.2.4. Bishops — 70

Part II: Life of Alexander Akoimetos

1. Characteristics of the Source — 87
 - 1.1. Dates — 87
 - 1.2. The Author — 89
 - 1.3. Structure — 90
 - 1.4. Biographical Data in the Narratio Hagiographica — 91
 - 1.5. Alexander's Trial and Expulsion from Constantinople — 98
2. Analysis — 101
 - 2.1. Alexander's Relations with the Authorities from the Beginning of His Activity up until His Arrival at Antioch — 101
 - 2.2. Alexander's Conflict with the Authorities of Antioch — 103
 - 2.3. Alexander in Constantinople — 106

Digression Messalian Tendencies in the VH and VAI — 109

Part III: Life of Daniel the Stylite

1. Characteristics of the Source — 119
 - 1.1. The Author, Dates, and the Purpose of the Work — 119
 - 1.2. Structure — 123
 - 1.3. Biographical Data — 123
2. Analysis — 129
 - 2.1. Daniel's Relations with the Emperors — 129
 - 2.2. Daniel's Relations with the Empresses — 163
 - 2.3. Encounter with Gubazes, King of Lazica — 168
 - 2.4. Encounter with Olybrius, the Later Emperor in the West (472) — 170
 - 2.5. Daniel's Relations with Figures of Authority, Officers, and Imperial Officials — 171
 - 2.6. Daniel's Relations with Bishops — 189
 - 2.7. Daniel's Relations with the Low-Ranking Clergy and Monks — 204

Part IV: Life of Markellos Akoimetos

1. Characteristics of the Source — 211
 - 1.1. Dates — 211
 - 1.2. The Author and the Purpose of the Work — 214
 - 1.3. Originality and Borrowings; Structure — 216
 - 1.4. Biographical Data in the Narratio Hagiographica — 216

2.	Analysis — 221
2.1.	Markellos Akoimetos and Secular Authority — 221
2.1.1.	Markellos vs. Aspar and His Sons — 221
2.1.2.	Relations with Imperial Officials and Prominent Figures — 227
2.2.	Markellos' Relations with Church Authority — 228

Part V: The Hagiographical Ideal of the Relationship between the Holy Man and Authority and the Historical Basis for Such Relations

1.	Secular Authority — 235
2.	Church Authority — 240
3.	Charismatic Authority — 243

Bibliography — 245

Index of People — 267

Index of Places — 269