

Contents

Dedication	vii
Foreword	ix
Headway charity disclaimer	xi

Gentle help from nature 3

Rediscovering home and natural remedies	5
Healthy horses with help from nature	5
Key to symptoms – the right remedy for every case	7
The right application and dosage	8

Home and natural remedies from a to z 12

Algae 15 – Aloe vera 17 – Anise 19 – Arnica 21 – Avocado 24

Birch leaves 26 – Black caraway 27 – Borage 30 – Buckwheat 32

Caraway 34 – Carrots 36 – Chamomile 38 – Cider vinegar 40 – Coltsfoot 42 –
Comfrey 44 – Coneflower 46

Dandelion 48 – Devil's claw 50

Elderberry 53 – Eucalyptus 55 – Evening primrose 57 – Eyebright 59

Fennel 61 – Fenugreek 63 – Field horsetail 65 – Fungi 66

Garlic 69 – Ginger 71 – Ginkgo biloba 73 – Ginseng 75 – Goosegrass 77 –
Grapefruit seed extract 79 – Green tea 81

Hawthorn 84 – Hay flowers 86 – Honey 88 – Hops 90 – Horseradish 92
Iceland moss 94
Lady's mantle 96 – Lavender 98 – Lime tree/lime blossom 100 – Linseed 102 – Liquorice 104
Marigold 106 – Marsh mallow 108 – Meadowsweet 110 – Mistletoe 112 – Monk's pepper 114 – Mussel extract 115
Nettle 117
Onion 119 – Oregano 121
Parsley 123 – Peppermint 125 – Potatoes 127
Raspberry 129 – Rosehip 131 – Rosemary 133
Sage 135 – Marian thistle 137 – St. John's wort 139
Tea tree oil 141 – Thyme 143
Valerian 145
Water 148 – White cabbage 150 – Willow bark 152 – Witch hazel 154
Yarrow 156 – Yoghurt and whey 158

A varied diet	161
Fruit for horses	163
Teatime in the stable	165
Plant oils for more vitality	168
Year-round health	170
Fresh in the spring	173
Energy top-up in the summer	177
Healthy in the autumn	180
Fit throughout the winter	182

Miscellaneous	186
Further reading	189
ID card	189
Index	191