

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	XI
Acknowledgements.....	XIII
X. Introduction	1
X. 1 Criteria of selection.....	2
X. 2 The portraits.....	6
X. 3 The method	7
X. 4 A brief word on gender studies in Central Europe	10
I. Ema Destinn (1878–1930) – a Bohemian in New York.....	17
I. 1 The historical context.....	17
I. 2 Emmy or Ema? Destinn's success, work for independence and decline.....	20
I. 3 Conclusion	33
II. Alice Garrigue Masaryková (1879–1966) – the First Czech feminist?.....	35
II. 1 The historical context.....	35
II. 2 Imprisoned for being a daughter.....	56
II. 3 The Czechoslovak Red Cross as the fulfilment of “small works” (drobná práce).....	65
II. 4 Conclusion	82
III. Eva ‘Mimi’ Jiráňková (1921–2015) – a witness of Democracy and Nazism (OHI).....	87
IV. Milada Horáková (1901–1950) – executed for her belief in Democracy.....	99
IV. 1 Historical context.....	99
IV. 2 Milada Horáková – a democrat and feminist.....	111
IV. 3 The propaganda campaign creating the Socialist Citizen....	131
IV. 4 Conclusion	156

V. Věra Čáslavská (*1942) – an Olympic champion punished with silence	158
V. 1 The historical context.....	173
V. 2 From Olympic stardom to social isolation.....	185
V. 3 Conclusion	198
VI. Nataša Lišková (*1949) – a Czechoslovak citizen (OHI)	201
VII. Tereza Maxová (*1971) – Beauty and the care of children (OHI).....	207
Conclusion	213
Appendix
Chronology	221
Bibliography	247
Index.....	263