

012 — 013

Map

Visualise the city with our nifty map of Vienna and get to grips with the key areas covered in this guide.

014 — 015

Need to know

Here you'll find the basics for understanding the city's streets, sights, tastes and citizens, including being a pedestrian, coffee terminology and handshake etiquette.

016 — 027

Hotels

Be it off-the-wall design hotels or grand old residences in palatial buildings, Vienna has plenty of options for bedding down. Our guide to the city's accommodation has everything you need, whether you're here for business or pleasure.

028 — 047

Food and drink

From elbow-to-elbow eating at a sausage stand to fine-dining and the best coffeehouses, here are our favourite places for food and drink.

028 — 036

Restaurants

037 — 042

Coffee

042 — 043

Galerias

043 — 045

Lunch

046 — 047

Drinks

048 — 065

Retail

Centuries-old family-run shops and niche boutiques set a high standard for shopping in Vienna. You'll find sharp tailoring, unconventional fashion and a wealth of concept stores, ateliers and curios.

048 — 050

Concept stores

050 — 054

Homeware

055 — 060

Specialist retail

060 — 065

Clothing

065

Bookshops

066 — 068

Things we'd buy

Glassware, artisan footwear and traditional snacks all earn a spot in our guide to the essential take-home items for any visitor to the Austrian capital.

069 — 092

Essays

Vienna is a complicated place, which is largely why we love it. Monocle family and friends impart their passion for the city and paint a picture of what living here is really like.

093 — 105

Culture

The city that great artists and composers from Gustav Klimt to Mozart have called home leads the way when it comes to the arts. See the best of the cultural assets with our guide to museums, galleries housing experimental and classic art, and historical cinemas.

093 — 095

Museums

096 — 097

Museumsquartier

098 — 099

Public art spaces

099 — 100

Commercial galleries

101 — 102

Music and theatre

103 — 104

Cinemas

105

Media

106 — 121

Design and architecture

From Baroque edifices to brutalist constructions and contemporary spaces, this is the backstory to the city's aesthetic highlights.

106 — 108

Contemporary

108 — 111

Jugendstil

111 — 114

Middle Ages and Baroque

114 — 116

Red Vienna

117 — 118

Brutalism

118 — 119

Eclecticism

119 — 120

Transport

120 — 121

Visual identity

— —

122 — 127

Sport and fitness

Don't let a city break get in the way of your fitness regime. We've put the leg work into rounding up the best places in the city for breaking a sweat, be it in or on the water, along the tarmac or gliding on the powdery stuff in the mountains. Plus: the finest grooming emporiums to keep you looking the part.

122 — 123

Winter months

123

Weatherproof

124 — 125

Summer months

126

Cycling

126 — 127

Running routes

128 — 137

Walks

One of the best ways to get to grips with a city is by hitting the streets. But where to start? We visit five of the city's most diverse and interesting neighbourhoods to highlight enlightening routes through the best that each has to offer.

128 — 129

Josefstadt to Neubau

130 — 131

Freihausviertel

132 — 133

Leopoldstadt

134 — 135

Wieden

136 — 137

Innere Stadt

138 — 139

Resources

Our expert advice for enjoying Vienna like a local, with the best events, transport tips and essential vocabulary. There's also a playlist to accompany your trip and suggestions for what to do on a rainy day.

140 — 141

About Monocle

Find out more about our global brand, from groundbreaking print, radio, online and film output through to our cafés and shops.

142 — 143

Acknowledgements

The people who put this guide together: writers, photographers, researchers and all the rest.

144 — 145

Index