

Inhaltsverzeichnis / Table of Contents

|                                                                                             |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Vorwort .....                                                                        | 5  |
| (David Zimmermann)                                                                   |    |
| Foreword .....                                                                       | 7  |
| (David Zimmermann)                                                                   |    |
| Einleitung .....                                                                     | 11 |
| (Peter J. Schick)                                                                    |    |
| Richard DIRNHOFER, Bern                                                              |    |
| Postmortale forensische Bildgebung in den Gerichtssaal! .....                        | 21 |
| Den Mehrwert nutzen!                                                                        |    |
| Eva SCHEURER, Basel                                                                  |    |
| Bildgebende Methoden in der klinischen Rechtsmedizin .....                           | 41 |
| Markus WEBER, Bern                                                                   |    |
| Postmortale Bildgebung (Virtopsy) in der SchweizerischenStrafrechtspraxis ..... | 47 |
| Eine Umfrage bei den kantonalen Staatsanwaltschaften und ihrHintergrund                 |    |
| Jochen GRIMM / Michael GRIMM, Bonn                                                   |    |
| Postmortale Forensische Bildgebung im DeutschenStrafprozessrecht .....          | 61 |
| Peter J. SCHICK, Graz                                                                |    |
| Bildgebende Verfahren im österreichischenStrafprozessrecht .....                | 73 |
| Eine medizin- und strafprozessrechtliche Analyse                                            |    |

|                      |            |
|----------------------|------------|
| Glossar ..... | 101 |
|----------------------|------------|

|                          |            |
|--------------------------|------------|
| Introduction..... | 105 |
|--------------------------|------------|

(Peter J. Schick)

Richard DIRNHOFER, Berne

|                                                                    |            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Bringing Postmortem Forensic Imaging to the Courtroom ..... | 115 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|

Utilising the added value!

Eva SCHEURER, Bâle

|                                                           |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Imaging methods in clinical forensic medicine..... | 135 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|------------|

Markus WEBER, Berne

|                                                                                             |            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Postmortem Imaging (Virtopsy) in the Practice of the SwissCriminal Courts ..... | 141 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|

A survey of cantonal public prosecutors and its background

Jochen GRIMM / Michael GRIMM, Bonn

|                                                                                     |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Postmortem Forensic Imaging in the German Law of CriminalProcedure..... | 155 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|

Peter J. SCHICK, Graz

|                                                                |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Imaging Techniques in Austrian Criminal Procedure ..... | 167 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|------------|

An analysis from the viewpoint of medical law and criminal procedure

|                       |            |
|-----------------------|------------|
| Glossary ..... | 195 |
|-----------------------|------------|