

Contents

Acknowledgements — V

List of Figures — XIX

List of Tables — XIX

Abbreviations — XX

1	Introduction — 1
1.1	Nineteenth-Century American Restorationism — 2
1.2	Historiographical Intention — 3
1.3	Overall Process — 5
1.3.1	Pilot Study and Initial Hypothesis — 5
1.3.2	Archival Research — 5
1.3.3	Case Analysis — 6
1.3.4	Constraint Identification and Application — 6
1.4	Monograph Organization and Findings — 7
1.4.1	Groundwork — 7
1.4.2	Case Studies — 10
1.4.3	Models and Narratives — 16

Part I: Groundwork

2	Methodology — 23
2.1	Research Thesis — 23
2.2	Event Interpretation — 23
2.2.1	Scripts and Events — 24
2.2.2	Enculturation — 25
2.2.3	Events in the Historical Record — 26
2.2.4	Linearization Strategies — 27
2.2.5	Narrative Strategy — 27
2.3	Braudel's Historiographical Method — 28
2.3.1	Braudel's Trifurcated Historical Time — 28
2.3.2	Analysis — 30
2.4	Inspiration and Biases — 32
2.5	Organization — 34

3 Nineteenth-Century Economic Life — 36

- 3.1 Introduction — 36
- 3.2 Settlement — 36
- 3.3 Pioneer and Farm Life — 38
- 3.4 Settled Life — 43
- 3.5 Mobility and Trade — 44
- 3.5.1 Using Person Power — 44
- 3.5.2 Using Animal Power — 45
- 3.5.3 Water Transportation — 46
- 3.5.4 Transportation Infrastructure — 51
- 3.6 Manufacturing and Industry — 63
- 3.6.1 Bootstrapping the Process — 63
- 3.6.2 Refining and Processing — 65
- 3.6.3 Goods and Transportation Services — 67
- 3.7 The Gentleman Farmer — 68
- 3.7.1 Some Famous Exemplars — 68
- 3.7.2 The Projected Image — 74
- 3.8 Outlook — 75

4 Joseph Smith Jr's Socio-Economic Baseline — 76

- 4.1 Introduction — 76
- 4.1.1 Methodological Considerations — 76
- 4.1.2 On Extended Family Influences — 77
- 4.1.3 On Geographic Influences — 77
- 4.1.4 On Business Influences — 78
- 4.2 Socio-Economic Family Influences — 78
- 4.2.1 The Nuclear Family — 78
- 4.2.2 The Extended Family — 83
- 4.2.3 Summary — 93
- 4.3 Influences of the Local Economy — 94
- 4.3.1 Palmyra — 94
- 4.3.2 Manchester — 95
- 4.3.3 Canandaigua — 96
- 4.3.4 Summary — 97
- 4.4 Joseph Smith Jr, Supernatural Consultant — 98
- 4.4.1 Defusing the Treasure-Hunter Stigma — 98
- 4.4.2 Searching for the Silver Mine — 99
- 4.4.3 The Articles of the Agreement — 101
- 4.4.4 Evaluating Joseph Smith Jr's Consultancy — 103
- 4.5 Summary — 104

5	A New Scripture — 106
5.1	The Unexpected Openness of the Canon — 107
5.1.1	Which Bible — 107
5.1.2	The Textual Incompleteness of the Canon — 108
5.1.3	The Conceptual Insufficiency of the Canon — 110
5.1.4	The Lost Tribes — 111
5.2	Recognizing a New Revelation — 115
5.2.1	The Process of Revelation — 116
5.3	The Impeccable Translation — 117
5.4	The Socio-Economic Stance of the Book of Mormon — 120
5.4.1	The Role of Trade in the Book of Mormon — 121
5.4.2	The Socio-Economic Optimum and its Loss — 122
5.4.3	Discussion — 124
5.5	Outlook — 126

Part II: Socio-Economic Case Studies

6	Funding the Book of Mormon — 129
6.1	Introduction to the Case Studies — 129
6.1.1	Apologetics — 130
6.1.2	Dominating through Details — 131
6.1.3	Argumentative Focus — 132
6.2	Scribes and Sponsors — 133
6.2.1	The Knight Family — 133
6.2.2	The Whitmer Family — 135
6.2.3	Martin Harris — 136
6.3	Presses, Proofs and Book Publishing — 138
6.4	Conclusions — 140
6.4.1	Supported by Gentlemen Farmers — 141
6.4.2	Outlook — 142
7	Raiding the Campbellites — 143
7.1	Introduction — 143
7.1.1	The Split between the Baptists and the Disciples — 143
7.1.2	The Spaulding-Rigdon Thesis — 144
7.1.3	Outlook — 145
7.2	The Campbellite Movement — 146
7.2.1	Alexander Campbell — 146
7.2.2	Adamson Bentley — 148

7.2.3	Sidney Rigdon — 149
7.2.4	The Mahoning Baptist Association — 150
7.2.5	Pittsburgh — 150
7.2.6	The Christian Baptist — 151
7.2.7	The McCalla Debate — 153
7.2.8	Rigdon as a Campbellite — 153
7.2.9	Walter Scott's Evangelizing — 155
7.2.10	Spreading the Restoration — 157
7.2.11	Debating Robert Owen — 158
7.2.12	Disagreement at Austintown — 162
7.2.13	Rigdon and the Rigdonites Become Mormons — 165
7.2.14	Rigdon's Conversion — 166
7.2.15	Differences Explored — 167
7.3	Excursion: The Problem of Compensating Religious Work — 169
7.3.1	Salaries — 171
7.3.2	Collections — 172
7.3.3	Patronage — 173
7.3.4	Independence — 173
7.3.5	Bishops are not Preachers — 174
7.3.6	The Mormon Stance — 175
7.4	Outlook: Transition in Kirtland — 176
8	Consecration and Stewardship — 178
8.1	Edward Partridge — 178
8.2	The Economics of Moving the Fayette Saints — 180
8.3	Newel Kimball Whitney — 182
8.3.1	Early Life — 182
8.3.2	Doing Business in Kirtland — 183
8.3.3	Newel K. Whitney and Company — 186
8.3.4	The Fullness of the Gospel — 187
8.4	The First Bishop — 189
8.5	Phase I: The Beginning — 191
8.5.1	Revelation D&C 42 — 191
8.5.2	Discussion — 193
8.5.3	Early Implementation in Ohio — 195
8.6	Phase II: Independence, MS — 197
8.6.1	Bringing the Partridge Family — 197
8.6.2	Consecration upon Arrival — 199
8.6.3	The Problem of Atomization — 200

8.7	Phase III: Donations Replace Consecration in Ohio —	201
8.7.1	Enforcing Donations —	201
8.7.2	Relief from other Branches —	202
8.8	Phase IV: The Move to Far West, Missouri —	203
8.9	Outlook —	204
9	The United Firm —	206
9.1	Introduction —	206
9.2	Initial Founding —	208
9.3	Shifts and Realignment —	213
9.3.1	Independence and Connectedness —	213
9.3.2	Dr Frederick G. Williams —	214
9.3.3	The Johnson Family —	215
9.4	The United Firm at Work —	217
9.4.1	Businesses in Kirtland —	217
9.4.2	Properties in Missouri —	218
9.4.3	Missouri Operations Disrupted —	219
9.4.4	The Literary Firm Moves to Ohio —	220
9.4.5	Disagreements in the United Firm —	221
9.4.6	The Introduction of High Councils —	221
9.5	Separation and Obfuscation —	222
9.5.1	Publishing an Indemnifying Revelation —	223
9.6	Reorganization and Debt —	224
9.6.1	High Councils Replace the United Firm —	224
9.6.2	Battling the Debt —	225
10	The Kirtland Safety Society —	227
10.1	Banking in Ohio —	230
10.1.1	Chartered Banking in Ohio 1831-1836 —	230
10.1.2	The Infamous Owl Creek Bank of Mount Vernon —	238
10.1.3	Excursion: The Old Bank of Michigan —	243
10.1.4	Leverage in Ohio —	245
10.2	The Short History of the Safety Society —	248
10.2.1	Cash Flow and Cash Constriction —	248
10.2.2	Unclear Origins of a Bad Idea —	248
10.2.3	Founding a Bank Differently —	250
10.2.4	Going it Alone —	253
10.2.5	Leverage and Circulation —	254
10.2.6	Further Attempts to Charter —	256
10.2.7	Would the Charter have Helped? —	258

10.2.8	The Banking Crisis —	259
10.3	The Fall-Out —	260
11	Settling Nauvoo —	262
11.1	Aftermath of the Mormon War —	262
11.1.1	Preventing the Scatter —	262
11.1.2	Purchasing Commerce and Environs —	263
11.1.3	The Church as Land Promoter —	265
11.1.4	Containing Financial Troubles —	268
11.2	Plats and Lots —	269
11.3	Settling the Swamp —	270
11.4	Experienced Hands —	272
11.4.1	The Law Brothers —	272
11.4.2	Edwin Woolley —	275
11.4.3	Edward Hunter —	279
12	Ruling Nauvoo —	285
12.1	Social Engagement —	286
12.1.1	Managing the Poverty Relief —	286
12.1.2	The Female Relief Society of Nauvoo —	288
12.2	New Ventures —	290
12.2.1	The Red Brick Store —	291
12.2.2	Joseph Smith Jr's Steamboats —	297
12.3	Administrating the City —	303
12.3.1	The Nauvoo City Charter —	303
12.3.2	Funding Change—The Case of the Nauvoo House —	306
12.4	The Interference from Polygamy —	309
12.4.1	Ephraimite Roots —	311
12.4.2	Excursion: Testing of Loyalties —	312
12.4.3	Bonding and Proximity —	313
12.4.4	Failure to Convince —	315
12.4.5	Loyal Dissent —	316
12.4.6	The Fight with the Law Brothers —	317
12.5	Outlook —	318
13	Nauvoo Loose Ends —	321
13.1	The British Influence —	321
13.2	Agricultural Association —	323
13.3	Economic Bipolarism —	324
13.4	Nauvoo—Periphery to Central St Louis —	327

13.5	Epilogue: Superior Organization —	329
13.5.1	Organizational Shortcomings of the Campbellites —	329
13.5.2	Organizing the Restoration —	330
14	The Evolution of Socio-Economic Policy —	337
14.1	Joseph Smith Jr's Solution —	337
14.1.1	Dynamic but Non-Agentive Processes —	339
14.1.2	The Beginnings of Specialization —	340
14.1.3	The Confluence of Problems —	340
14.2	Research Findings —	341
14.2.1	Research Hypothesis Reviewed —	341
14.2.2	Concluding Theses —	342

Part III: Models and Narratives

15	Braudel's Mediterranean Models —	349
15.1	Basic Topics —	349
15.1.1	Sifting the Topics —	350
15.2	The Economic Measure of Distance —	351
15.2.1	Description —	351
15.3	Specie and Inflation —	354
15.4	The Grain Trade —	357
15.5	The Imperial State —	357
15.6	The Elite in Society —	358
15.7	The Middle Class —	359
15.8	The Poor and the Outlaws —	360
15.9	On Model Transfers —	361
16	Evaluating Mediterranean Models —	363
16.1	The Economic Measure of Distance —	363
16.2	Specie and Inflation —	364
16.3	The Grain Trade —	365
16.4	The Imperial State —	366
16.5	Social Change —	366
16.6	Model-Transfer Experiment —	368
16.6.1	The Trope of Counterfeiting —	368
16.6.2	A Culture of Violence —	373
16.6.3	Policing Nauvoo —	377
16.6.4	The Role of Drinking in Nauvoo —	380

16.6.5	Detectives, Headhunters and Informers —	381
16.6.6	Evaluation of Historical Models —	383
16.7	Summary —	387
17	Epilogue: Whence Salvation History? —	388
17.1	Introduction —	388
17.2	The Implausibility of Mormon Salvation History —	389
17.3	Demythologizing Salvation History —	391
17.3.1	Rudolf Bultmann's Program of Interpreting Mythology —	391
17.3.2	Cullmann's Counter-proposal: History as Salvation —	394
17.3.3	The Present State of Salvation History —	395
17.4	A Farewell to "Big Men" Salvation History —	396
17.5	Within Salvation History and yet Excluded —	399
17.6	Conclusion —	402
18	Appendix —	404
18.1	The Role of Lucy Mack Smith's Remniscences —	404
18.2	Colonel Stephen Mack —	406
18.2.1	Stephen Mack in the Rough Draft —	407
18.2.2	Stephen Mack in the Clean Draft —	408
18.2.3	Stephen Mack and the Oakland County Historians —	409
18.2.4	How the Bank of Michigan Made Colonel Mack Poor —	410
18.3	The 1825 Defalcation of the Bank of Michigan —	412
18.3.1	Case Number Mapping —	412
18.3.2	Key Events in the McCloskey Trial —	413
18.3.3	Key Events in Henry J. Hunt's Trial —	418
18.3.4	Key Events in Gabriel Godfroy's Trial —	419
18.3.5	Key Events in Stephen Mack's Trial —	419
18.3.6	Key Events in Austin E. Wing's Trial —	420
18.3.7	Key Events in John M. Mack's Petition —	420
18.4	Ohio Banks and Capitalization —	422
18.4.1	Notes —	423
18.4.2	Skipped —	423

18.5	Licenses — 427
18.5.1	Software License for PAT Maps — 427
Bibliography	— 429
Index	— 447